Military Forms For 2015:

The Monthly Army List ,1902 Routledge Handbook of Defence Studies David J. Galbreath,John R. Deni,2018-02-12

The Routledge Handbook of Defence Studies provides a comprehensive collection of essays on contemporary defence studies by leading international scholars Defence studies is a multi disciplinary study of how agents predominantly states prepare for and go to war Whereas security studies has been broadened and stretched to cover at times the near totality of international and domestic affairs and war studies has come to mean not just operations and tactics but also experiences and outcomes defence studies remains a coherent area of study primarily aimed at how defence policy changes over time and in relation to stimulating factors such as alterations in power strategy and technology This new Handbook offers a complete landscape of this area of study and contributes to a review of defence studies in terms of policy security and war but also looks forward to new challenges to existing conceptions of defence and how this is changing as states and their militaries also change The volume is divided into four thematic sections Defence as Policy Defence Practice Operations and Tactics and Contemporary Defence Issues The ability to review the field while also looking forward to further research is an important element of a sustainable text on defence studies In as much as this volume is able to highlight the main themes of defence studies it also offers an in depth look into how defence issues can be examined and compared in a contemporary setting This Handbook will be of great interest to students of defence studies strategic studies war studies security studies and IR Sessional Papers

Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1901 A Comparative Historical and Typological Approach to the Middle Eastern State System Lars Mjøset,Nils Butenschøn,Kristian Berg Harpviken,2024-04-19 Showcasing the legacy of Norwegian political scientist and sociologist Stein Rokkan this volume ushers in a new vision in the field of state formation and nation building The Monthly Army List ,1894 A New Politics of Heritage Reconstruction in Afghanistan Constance Wyndham,2023-12-22 A New Politics of Heritage Reconstruction in Afghanistan investigates the politics of cultural heritage preservation in Afghanistan between 2008 and 2015 Based on several periods of ethnographic fieldwork and the author s direct employment on several internationally sponsored heritage projects this book studies the new and complex intersections between cultural heritage and politics in Afghanistan Wyndham argues that a particular configuration of heritage and politics has emerged after the destruction of the Buddhas at Bamyān and demonstrates how the characteristics of this post Bamyān heritage paradigm are revealed through a number of case studies of internationally sponsored heritage work These case studies reveal how politics and heritage are currently configured across a diverse range of governments state and non state actors NGOs individuals and forms of expertise and why such intersections matter The book responds to a call from across the discipline of Heritage Studies to look more closely at the relationships between heritage power and politics A New Politics of Heritage Reconstruction in Afghanistan provides a fascinating case study on the intersection of heritage and politics that will be of interest to students and scholars of heritage as well as to professionals working on
