Essentials of Modern Language Association Style Joseph F. Trimmer,1998 Summarizes the documentation style of the Modern Language Association of America as it pertains to writing research papers providing information on how to prepare a bibliography how to document sources within the text of a paper when and how to use footnotes and endnotes and how to avoid plagiarizing A Handbook for History Teachers James A. Duthie,2012-09-28 History is not a mere chronicle of facts but a dialogue between competing interpretations of the past it should be taught as such Teaching history in this way makes it both intellectually demanding and more interesting while at the same time helps students acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to become functioning citizens in a democracy The opening chapters provide the rationale for the study of history its epistemological basis and the logic of the discipline The bulk of the book deals with practical ways to help students acquire process and apply information In particular it addresses the specific thinking skills required by the discipline with many effective techniques for helping students to master them The implications of this approach for teacher evaluation of student work are also addressed Practical Writing with Readings Bailey,Edward P. Bailey,Philip A. Powell,1998-09-08 The Practical Writer with Readings provides both developmental and first year composition students with a step by step approach to writing from the one paragraph essay to the five paragraph essay to the research paper

Critical Thinking Within the Library Program John Spencer,Christopher Millson-Martula,2014-10-20 While academic librarians frequently discuss critical thinking and its relationship to information literacy the literature does not contain an abundance of sources on the topic Therefore this work provides a current and timely perspective on the possible roles of critical thinking within the library program The work contains a variety of approaches likely to benefit the practicing librarian It begins with a review of the literature followed by theoretical approaches involving constructivism and the Socratic method Readers will find pieces on the integration of critical thinking into the first year experience and course specific case studies as well as a selection on a campus wide critical thinking project In each of the pieces librarians are exploring new ways to meet their instructional goals including the goal of teaching critical thinking skills to students across the curriculum This book was originally published as a special issue of College Undergraduate Libraries The Practical Writer Edward P. Bailey,Philip A. Powell,2003 THE PRACTICAL WRITER provides both developmental and first year composition students with a step by step approach to writing from the one paragraph essay to the five paragraph essay to the research paper Form and Style Carole Slade,2003 This classic introductory text is well known for its solid guidance in the writing documenting and formatting of research papers reports theses and dissertations Form and Style s comprehensive coverage of the research process ranges from choosing a topic and preparing a draft to documenting sources and preparing a bibliography The text provides models and explanations for four document styles Chicago Manual of Style CMS Modern Language Association MLA American Psychological Association APA and Columbia Guide to Online Style CGOS The Twelfth
