Mind Matters Loss And Grief:

Mind Matters: a Resource Bank on Loss & Grief Marilyn Harvey, 1999 Wellbeing: A Complete Reference Guide, Interventions and Policies to Enhance Wellbeing Felicia A. Huppert, Cary Cooper, 2014-02-05

Interventions and Policies to Enhance Wellbeing Wellbeing A Complete Reference Guide is the first multivolume interdisciplinary exploration of the topic of wellbeing. The notion of wellbeing has grown in importance and prominence across the globe in recent years and this reference work provides an in depth examination of the characteristics that enable individuals and organizations to thrive and flourish. Under the direction of noted academic Cary Cooper and edited by a distinguished group of senior scholars from a variety of disciplines, this project looks at wellbeing from multiple perspectives including children and families, the environment, the workplace, later life, economics, and interventions and public policy. Spanning the social sciences and encompassing the latest research, this is an essential reference for scholars, students, professionals, and policy makers who want to enhance and promote human wellbeing. Interventions and Policies to Enhance Wellbeing looks at the most successful existing strategies to promote wellbeing and mental health. It examines the latest research in the science of wellbeing and discusses the practical implications for improved learning, creativity, productivity, relationships, and health. The first two sections cover interventions for individuals across the lifespan as well as those for organizations and communities. The final section looks specifically at policy initiatives and approaches with a focus on the integration of new technology and the role of the media. In this multidisciplinary volume, a cadre of global scholars considers a wealth of new research and outlines the potential impact on future policy and the wellbeing of society at large. Mindmatters - Loss & Grief (kit). , Dealing with Dying, Death, and Grief during Adolescence David E. Balk, 2014-02-18

For some, life's introduction to death and grief comes early and when it does, it can take many forms. Not only does Dealing with Dying, Death and Grief during Adolescence tackle them all, it does so with David Balk's remarkable sensitivity to and deep knowledge of the pressures and opportunities adolescents face in their transition from childhood to adulthood. In seamless, jargon-free language, Balk brings readers up to date with what we know about adolescent development because over time, such changes form the backstory we need to comprehend the impact of death and bereavement in an adolescent's life. The book's later chapters break down the recent findings in the study of life-threatening illness and bereavement during adolescence. And crucially, these chapters also examine interventions that assist adolescents coping with these difficulties. Clinicians will come away from this book with both a grounded understanding of adolescent development and the adolescent experience of death, and they'll also gain specific tools for helping adolescents cope with death and grief on their own terms. For any clinician committed to supporting adolescents facing some of life's most difficult experiences, this integrated, up-to-date, and deeply insightful text is simply the book to have. David E. Balk is professor in the department of health and nutrition sciences at Brooklyn College, CUNY, where he directs the graduate program in thanatology.
