Miyazawa Kenji And His Illustrators:

Miyazawa Kenji and His Illustrators Helen Kilpatrick, 2012-12-10 In Miyazawa Kenji and His Illustrators Helen Kilpatrick examines re visionings of the literature of one of Japan's most celebrated authors Miyazawa Kenji 1896-1933. The deeply Buddhist Kenji's imaginative dwa children's tales are among the most frequently illustrated in Japan today. Numerous internationally renowned artists such as Munakata Shik Kim Tschang Yeul and Lee Ufan have represented his stories in an array of intriguing visual styles reinvigorating them as picture books for modern audiences. Focusing on some of Kenji's most famous narratives, the author analyses the ways artists respond to the stories, metaphysical philosophies exploring the interaction of literature, art, and culture. Miyazawa Kenji and His Illustrators is richly depicted with full colour images of the representations of Kenji's work, making the book a valuable resource on how illustrations shape story and how these picture books continue to convey the texts' witty and ironic messages more deeply than the written word alone. Children,

Deafness, and Deaf Cultures in Popular Media John Stephens, Vivian Yenika-Agbaw, 2022-12-28 Contributions by Cynthia Neese, Bailes Nina Batt, Lijun Bi, H l ne Chardon, Stuart Ching, Helene Ehriander, Xiangshu Fang, Sara Kersten, Parish Helen Kilpatrick, Jessica Kirkness, Sung Ae Lee, Jann Pataray, Ching Angela Schill, Josh Simpson, John Stephens, Corinne Walsh, Nerida Wayland, and Vivian Yenika Agbaw. Children Deafness and Deaf Cultures in Popular Media examines how creative works have depicted what it means to be a deaf or hard of hearing child in the modern world. In this collection of critical essays, scholars discuss works that cover wide-ranging subjects and themes: growing up deaf in a hearing world, stigmas associated with deafness, rival modes of communication, friendship and discrimination, intergenerational tensions between hearing and nonhearing family members, and the complications of establishing self-identity in increasingly complex societies. Contributors explore most of the major genres of children's literature and film, including realistic fiction, particularly young adult novels, as well as works that make deft use of humor and parody. Further, scholars consider the expressive power of multimodal forms such as graphic novel and film to depict experience from the perspective of children. Representation of the point of view of child characters is central to this body of work and to the intersections of deafness with discourses of diversity and social justice. The child point of view supports a subtle advocacy of a wider understanding of the multiple ways of being D deaf and the capacity of D deaf children to give meaning to their unique experiences, especially as they find themselves moving between hearing and Deaf communities. These essays will alert scholars of children's literature as well as the reading public to the many representations of deafness that, like deafness itself, pervade all cultures and are not limited to specific racial or sociocultural groups. Food issues □□ Miriam Castorina, Diego Cucinelli, 2022-04-28 Food issues: Interdisciplinary Studies on Food in Modern and Contemporary East Asia concentrates on the relationship among food, culture, literature, and language in a comparative, transcultural, or literary perspective.
