Racial, Ethnic, Gender and Class Representations in Margaret Laurence's Writings Andreea

Topor-Constantin, 2013-07-26 Racial Ethnic Gender and Class Representations in Margaret Laurence's Writings is a study on Canada Canadian literature and Margaret Laurence's works in particular thus addressing various kinds of readership This book avoids the danger of limiting the approach to solely focusing attention on Canada by presenting a thorough analysis of various literary genres allowing the book to be of interest to all literature lovers Furthermore the book explores the parallelism between life and fiction emphasising Laurence's biographic and realist elements and their influence on the writer's fictional writing revealing real and imaginary worlds which would appeal to anybody's literary needs This major contribution to the already existent criticism of Margaret Laurence's works lies in the analysis of her work as an entity balancing both terms of the common binary oppositions fiction versus non fiction Africa versus Canada white versus Black or Metis In spite of critical comments which might be raised Andreea Topor Constantin comments on how the voice of the marginal makes itself heard throughout the author's books underlying Laurence's emphasis on characterisation and her genuine concern for people This book covers all aspects of Laurence's life and fiction from the African to the writer's Canadian background from adults to children's literature from novels to short stories from essays to letters in order to challenge readers' perceptions of race ethnicity gender and class Hidden Tears at Lake Cascade Tonya F.
