Eccles,2010-06-10 Children spend more time in school than in any social institution outside the home And schools probably exert more influence on children s development and life chances than any environment beyond the home and neighbourhood The purpose of this book is to document some important ways schools influence children s development and to describe various models and methods for studying schooling effects Key features include Comprehensive Coverage this is the first book to provide a comprehensive review of what is known about schools as a context for human development Topical coverage ranges from theoretical foundations to investigative methodologies and from classroom level influences such as teacher student relations to broader influences such as school organization and educational policies Cross Disciplinary this volume brings together the divergent perspectives methods and findings of scholars from a variety of disciplines among them educational psychology developmental psychology school psychology social psychology psychiatry sociology and educational policy Chapter Structure to ensure continuity chapter authors describe 1 how schooling influences are conceptualized 2 identify their theoretical and methodological approaches 3 discuss the strengths and weaknesses of existing research and 4 highlight implications for future research practice and policy Methodologies chapters included in the text feature various methodologies including longitudinal studies hierarchical linear models experimental and quasi experimental designs and mixed methods Qureshi Manual of Scientific Manuscript

Writing for Medical Journals Adnan I. Qureshi MD,2012-01-31 Nine out of every ten medical students residents and fellows attempt to write a manuscript during their training Yet after finishing the training only 1 or 2 would continue to write scientific manuscripts due to the effort involved in preparing a manuscript Most medical students residents fellows and even junior faculty consider writing a scientific manuscript harder than working grueling hours on the clinical service The manual of scientific manuscript writing was developed to guide for medical students residents fellows and junior faculty by providing a step by step pathway for successful preparation of a manuscript The manual is expected to reduce the usual 3 and 6 months at times frustrating effort to a 1 to 2 week streamlined process to complete a manuscript PC Gamer ,2005
