

The Position

Working under close supervision, the Eligibility Worker I is the entry/lowest level in the Eligibility Worker series. An Eligibility Worker I determines the eligibility of applicants and recipients for public assistance programs through interactive interviewing and fact gathering; maintains current knowledge of program regulations and procedures necessary for multi-program caseload administration; initiates and processes casework through an automated system; identifies needs and makes appropriate referrals for health, social, and/or employment services. As requisite skills and knowledge are developed, greater independence and the full scope of responsibility are exercised. Employees are expected to promote to Eligibility Worker II after one year of satisfactory performance at the current level.

Additional Information

A valid driver's license may be required at the time of appointment and employees may also be required to drive their own car, provide proof of car insurance, and a DMV clearance. Individuals who do not meet this requirement due to a disability will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

Position may require pre-employment drug testing, physical and fingerprinting for a background investigation.

The existing eligible list will be replaced upon completion of this examination. The eligible list established from this recruitment will be used to fill part-time and full-time regular, limited-term or extra-help positions as vacancies occur on the need arises.

*This position requires the ability to speak, read, and write Spanish in addition to English. Candidates who have not passed the exam previously must take and pass the Merit System Spanish proficiency examination prior to appointment.

Madera County

Madera County, with a population of approximately 212,848, is located in the east center of California, in the heart of the Central Valley and the Central Sierra, approximately 20 miles from the Fresno Metropolitan Area, and hosts a section of Yosemite National Park.

The city of Madera is the county seat with a population of approximately 58,306.

Madera County is rich in agricultural production including dairy production, livestock, grapes, almonds, and other nut crops. Many outdoor recreational opportunities are available within Yosemite and it is only 180 miles to the Pacific beaches.
