African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda Musungu, Maxwell Constantine Chando, Hungwe, Chipu, 2024-01-16
Within academic circles there is a longstanding issue concerning the portrayal and understanding of African womanhood. Frequently these narratives are crafted by outsiders predominantly Western scholars often distorting the lived experiences and unique perspectives of African women. This has led to a skewed and sometimes negative perception of African women reinforcing stereotypes and sidelining their voices in critical discussions. Moreover this misrepresentation has real world consequences as it impacts social justice initiatives and development projects that rely on misguided narratives rather than the authentic voices of African women. African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda emerges as an essential solution to the misrepresentation of African women. This comprehensive and meticulously researched book offers an alternative narrative one that is rooted in African perspectives and experiences. It addresses the historical cultural and political dimensions of African womanhood providing a rich and nuanced understanding of this multifaceted topic.

Thirty Years of Public Sector Reforms in Africa Paulos Chanie, Paschal B. Mihyo, 2013
Over the past three decades African countries have been reforming their public sector with a view to improving efficiency effectiveness accountability and transparency as part of efforts to improve the delivery of public services. Reform actions have included privatisation public private partnerships commercialisation and adoption of private sector approaches in managing public organisations. This book put together by OSSREA reviews measures by African countries in that regard the extent to which the measures have achieved their intended results as well as the factors behind the failure to achieve those results where this was the case.

Promoting Gender Equity in Selected Public Universities of Kenya Jane Onsongo, 2011
The purpose of this study was to examine sustainable gender equity interventions in selected public universities. The study used descriptive survey and case study research methods to carry out an in depth analysis of the gender equity interventions in selected public universities in Kenya. The sample consisted of four public universities that were selected because they had established gender centers institutes that were assumed to be coordinating gender equity intervention. The study has the following objectives: To establish the existing gender inequalities in the formal organisational structure of the selected universities; To identify and assess sustainability of gender equity interventions in the selected public universities; To analyse the national regional international and organisational culture and policy contexts that have influenced and supported the introduction of the identified gender equity interventions; To investigate the attitudes of staff students and management towards the gender equity interventions and to recommend appropriate institutional strategies to address existing gender inequities.

Gender and Citizenship in the Global Age Amri, Laroussi, Ramtohul, Ramola, 2015-03-01
One of the major issues this book examines is what the African experience and identity have contributed to the debate on citizenship in the era of globalisation. The volume presents case studies of different African contexts illustrating the gendered aspects of citizenship as experienced by African men and women Citizenship carries manifold gendered aspects and given the distinct gender roles and responsibilities globalisation affects citizenship in different ways It further examines new forms of citizenship emerging from the current era dominated by a neoliberal focus The book is not exclusive in terms of theorisation but its focus on African contexts with an in depth analysis taking into consideration local culture and practices and their implications for citizenship provides a good foundation for further scholarly work on gender and citizenship in Africa Uganda Confidential ,1999 Genetics of Complex Traits & Diseases from Under-Represented Populations Segun Fatumo,Tinashe Chikowore,Karoline Kuchenbaecker,2022-02-22 deconstruct important issues and provide perspectives on understanding and transforming women's experiences in Africa. Some of the issues highlighted include the education of girls in Kenya, women's role in agriculture and crop production in Africa, women as culture mediators in music, the participation of women in sports, conservation of biodiversity and women in resource management in East Africa and the informal sector as a survival strategy in Nigeria. Guidance, Counselling and Indiscipline in Uganda Schools Michael Kawuki, 2003. Becoming an African University Carol Sicherman, 2005. For four decades Makerere University, known as the Oxford of Africa, was the sole university level institution in all of East Africa. A fabled Mecca for aspiring youth, it trained many of the region's first generation of intellectual and political leaders, including the present presidents of Kenya and Tanzania. It remains one of Africa's most important universities today. As one of the first comprehensive looks at an African university, this book tells the story of Makerere's colonial beginnings, its efflorescence during the 1950s and 1960s, its calamitous decline during nearly two decades of tyranny and civil war, and its resurgence following the restoration of peace and relative stability. Public Service Review and Reorganisation Commission, 1989-1990: Main report Uganda. Public Service Review and Re-organization Commission, 1990. Feminist Africa, 2002.

African Higher Education Damtew Teferra, Philip G. Altbach, 2003-10-02. This book is a comprehensive survey of all aspects and dimensions of higher education in Africa. Encyclopedia of Africa South of the Sahara John Middleton, 1997. Arranged alphabetically. In addition to biographies, extensive country information, primarily postindependence and historical events, the encyclopedia treats general topics in articles such as agriculture, political systems, and religion and ritual. A Knight without a Castle Robert Katende, 2019-11-12. The author's smooth flowing prose is laced with poignant details. A quick inspirational story of overcoming adversity. Kirkus Reviews. While some would hail Katwe as a den of failures, Robert Katende sees it as a training ground for future kings and queens. His work has started a movement which has caught the attention of world leaders, Bill Melinda Gates and The Obama Foundation, with many more on the horizon. Once too poor to afford the rat poison with which he planned to take his own life, Robert's legacy tells an astonishing true story of resilience and hope. His work was made famous in the Disney movie Queen of Katwe, a biographical drama about a 13-year-old girl who became a Uganda National Chess Champion under Robert's mentorship. Now readers will get a first-hand account of how it all started and the life of the man behind Phiona Mutesi's world-renowned accomplishments. This powerful story is presented in two parts: First from Robert's perspective, war refugee turned missionary, living the improbable dream to empower kids in Ugandan slums through chess, a game so foreign there is no word for it in their native language. And then by debut author Nathan Kiwere, presenting heartfelt testimonies from Katende's students. You'll ride along the deep valleys and the high mountaintops of Robert's childhood as he beats impossibilities that would have likely crushed anyone else. Robert's life illuminates a situation many will find difficult to imagine. However, his life will inspire you to achieve great things against insurmountable obstacles.
