Russian Conflict Management and European Security Governance Lance Davies, 2020-09-23 Russia's controversial annexation of Crimea in 2014 and its involvement in the conflict in Ukraine have left international audiences stunned. Russia now occupies a central place on the Western security agenda and has been recast as an important area of scholarly inquiry. The conflict has raised important questions about Russia's understanding of conflict management and its approach to contemporary European security. This book provides a timely and contextual exploration of Russia's post-Soviet legacy of conflict management in the backdrop of its interaction with Europe's system of security governance. By exploring Russia's approach from the early 1990s to the present day, the book offers a comprehensive exploration into the evolution of Russian behavior, investigating whether Russia's approach has developed in accordance with the policies and practices of security governance that have emerged in the European experience of conflict management. Together with extensive documentary analysis and elite interviews, it employs the framework of security governance to examine Moscow's behavior across a set of case studies situated in the European political and security environment. It offers a timely contribution to our understanding of Russia's response to intrastate conflict and Russia's broader engagement with its contemporary security environment.

ECKM2015-16th European Conference on Knowledge Management Maurizio Massaro and Andrea Garlatti, 2015-09-02 These proceedings represent the work of researchers presenting at the 16th European Conference on Knowledge Management (ECKM) 2015. We are delighted to be hosting ECKM at the University of Udine, Italy, on the 3-4 September 2015. The conference will be opened with a keynote from Dr Madelyn Blair from Pelere Inc, USA, on the topic 'The Role of KM in Building Resilience'. On the afternoon of the first day, Dr Daniela Santarelli from Lundbeck, Italy, will deliver a second keynote speech. The second day will be opened by Dr John Dumay from Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia. ECKM is an established platform for academics concerned with current research and for those from the wider community involved in Knowledge Management to present their findings and ideas to peers from the KM and associated fields. ECKM is also a valuable opportunity for face-to-face interaction with colleagues from similar areas of interests. The conference has a well-established history of helping attendees advance their understanding of how people, organisations, regions, and even countries generate and exploit knowledge to achieve a competitive advantage and drive their innovations forward. The range of issues and mix of approaches followed will ensure an interesting two days. 260 abstracts were initially received for this conference. However, the academic rigor of ECKM means that after the double-blind peer review process, there are 102 academic papers, 15 PhD research papers, 1 Masters research paper, and 7 Work in Progress papers published in these Conference Proceedings. These papers reflect the continuing interest and diversity in the field of
