Le Passager Clandestin:

Le Passager Clandestin, Etc Georges Simenon, 1947 Exile, Non-Belonging and Statelessness in Grangaud, Jabès, Lubin and Luca Greg Kerr, 2021-06-07 At least since the Romantic era poetry has often been understood as a powerful vector of collective belonging The idea that certain poets are emblematic of a national culture is one of the chief means by which literature historicizes itself inscribes itself in a shared cultural past and supplies modes of belonging to those who consume it But what then of the exiled migrant or translingual poet How might writing in a language other than one's mother tongue complicate this picture of the relation between poet language and literary system What of those for whom the practice of poetry is inseparable from a sense of restlessness or unease suggesting a condition of not being at home in any one language even that of their mother tongue These questions are crucial for four French language poets whose work is the focus of this study Armen Lubin 1903-74 Gh. rasim Luca 1913-94 Edmond Jabès 1912-91 and Michelle Grangaud 1941- Ranging across borders within and beyond the Francosphere from Algeria to Armenia to Egypt to Romania this book shows how a poetic practice inflected by exile statelessness or non belonging has the potential to disrupt long held assumptions of the relation between subjects the language they use and the place from which they speak Le convenzioni internazionali della navigazione marittima, interna e aerea Giorgio Righetti, Massimiliano Rimaboschi, 2008 Le Passager Clandestin. anthropological thought and representational practice are identifiable throughout society and across literature the arts and the sciences Collectively they can be theorized as belonging to a dispositif the anthropological dispositif The modernization of anthropology serves as an ambivalent interlocutor for the realizations of the writers studied in this book about the difficulties of describing cultural realities that lie largely outside their ken Anthropology motivates new literary representational strategies that are alternatively in keeping with scientific mandates or operate against them Forty images are analyzed alongside literary works A postcolonial chapter shows how the ethical awareness of the colonial modern authors studied have impacted minority self representation in contemporary France Mobility and Geographical Scales Guillaume
