Minority Theatre on the Global Stage Madelena Gonzalez, Hélène Laplace-Claverie, 2012-03-15 All over the world in the most varied contexts contemporary theatre is a rich source for increasing the visibility of communities generally perceived by others as minorities or those who see themselves as such Whether of a linguistic ethnic political social cultural or sexual nature the claims of minorities enjoy a privileged medium in theatre Perhaps it is because theatre itself is linked to the notions of centre and periphery conformism and marginality domination and subjugation notions that minority theatre constantly examines by staging them that it is so sensitive to the issues of troubled and conflicted identity and able to give them a universal resonance Among the questions raised by this volume is that of the relationship between the particular and the more general aims of this type of theatre How is it possible to speak to everyone or at least to the majority when one is representing the voice of the few Beyond such considerations urgent critical examination of the function and aims of minority theatre is needed To what kind of public is such drama addressed Does it have an exemplary nature How is it possible to avoid the pitfalls and the dead end of ghettoization Certain types of audience specific theatre are examined in this context as for example theatre as therapy theatre as an educational tool and gay theatre Particular attention is paid to the claims of minorities within culturally and economically dominant western countries These are some of the avenues explored by this volume which aims to answer fundamental questions such as What is minority theatre and why does theatre a supposedly bourgeois if not to say elitist art form have such affinity with the margins What if particularly in contemporary society the theatre as a form were merely playing out its fundamentally marginal status The authors of these essays show how different forms of minority theatre can challenge cultural consensus and homogenization while also aspiring to universality They also address the central question of the place and status of apparently marginal forms of theatre in the context of globalization and in doing so re examine theatre itself as a genre Not only do they illustrate how minority theatre can challenge the dominant paradigms that govern society but they also suggest their own more flexible and challenging frameworks for theatrical activity Rivals and Conspirators Fae Brauer, 2014-07-08 Once the State run Salon in Paris closed an array of independent Salons mushroomed starting with the French Artists Salon and Women s Salon in 1881 followed by the Independent Artists Salon National Salon of Fine Arts and Autumn Salon Offering an unparalleled choice of art identities and alliances together with undreamed of opportunities for sales commissions prizes and art criticism these great Salons guaranteed the centripetal and centrifugal power of Paris as the modern art centre Lured by the prospect of being exhibited annually in Salons the size of Biennales today a huge number and national diversity of artists from the Australian Rupert Bunny to the Spaniards Pablo Picasso and Juan Gris flocked to Paris Yet by no means were these Salons equal in power nor did they work consensually to forge this modern art centre Formed on the basis of their different cultural politics constantly they rivalled one another for State acquisitions and commissions exhibition places and spaces awards and every other means of enhancing their legitimacy By no means were the avant garde salons those that most succeeded Instead as this cultural political history demonstrates the French Artists and National Fine Art Salons were the most successful with the genderist French Artists Salon being the most powerful and official Despite the renown today of Neo Impressionism Art Nouveau Fauvism Cubism and Orphism the most powerful artists in this modern art centre were not Sonia Delaunay mile Gall Paul Signac Henri Matisse or even Picasso but such Academicians as L on Bonnat William Bouguereau Fernand Cormon Edouard Detaille Gabriel Ferrier Jean Paul Laurens Luc Oliver Merson and Aim Morot who exhibited at the official Salon supported by the machinery of the State In its exposure of the rivalry conflict and struggle between the Salons and their artists this is an unprecedented history of dissension It also exposes how just below the welcoming internationalist veneer of this modern art centre intense persecutionist paranoia lay festering Whenever France s civilizing mission seemed culturally commercially or colonially threatened it erupted in waves of nationalist xenophobia turning artistic rivalry into bitter enmity In exposing how rivals became transmuted into conspirators ultimately this book reveals a paradox resonant in histories that celebrate the international triumph of French modern art that this magnetic centre which began by welcoming international modernists ended by attacking them for undermining its cultural supremacy contaminating its civilizing mission and politically persecuting the very modernist culture for which it has received historical renown La Baïonnette, 1918 *Catalog of the Melville J.
