Léon Bloy, 1969 Blood of the Poor Léon Bloy, 2021-04-19 Blood of the Poor originally Le Sang du pauvre by Catholic writer Léon Bloy is perhaps the hardest to read of Léon Bloy's writings as it goes straight to the heart of the matter of what is wrong in the world It is hard to read emotively because it gives the honest reader no room for cover no space for shelter no shadow of a tree to hide behind With avarice as its subject it is a dark poem in prose a sermon in the style of Savonarola with the biting satire of a Jonathan Swift The Blood and the Flesh of the Poor are the only aliments that can nourish the substance of the rich being a poison and a putrefaction It is therefore a necessity of hygiene that the poor be devoured by the rich who find that very good and who ask for it again Rich children are fortified by the juice of the poor's flesh and the rich man's cuisine is endowed with concentrate of the poor You believe yourselves to be innocent because you have not slit somebody's throat as yet I want to believe because you have not forced open somebody's door nor scaled his wall in order to despoil him of his possessions because finally you have not transgressed human laws too visibly You are so gross so carnal for you do not conceive of a crime that cannot be seen But I say to you my very dear brother that you are a plant and that that assassin is your flower It is true that there are refuges drunkenness prostitution of the body suicide or madness Why would the dance not continue
