Le Ravin Des Anges:

Foundations of Power and Conflicts of Authority in Late-antique Monasticism Alberto Camplani, Giovanni Filoramo, 2007
The volume offers the acts of a meeting held at the University of Turin on the foundations of power and the conflicts of authority as documented by the monastic sources of East and West in Late Antiquity with special reference to Max Weber's analysis of these notions. The issue is here examined from a variety of perspectives: the different meanings of power and authority in ancient monastic sources; the criteria by which authority is established within the monastic organizations; the kind of power and authority exercised towards outsiders; the relationship between monks and other authorities, especially the Church; the monks and their economic activity; the strategies for the solution of conflicts. The wide range of historical and cultural problems raised by these questions is what the present volume tries to illuminate through individual studies of a number of specific phenomena, events and figures from Shenute to John Cassian, from Abraham of Kashkar to Maxim the Confessor, paying particular attention to monasticism in Egypt, Palestine, Africa and Persia. Le Soulier de Satin [vol. 1] Paul Claudel, 1929 A Handbook for Travellers in France ... John Murray (Firm), 1881 LES CONTEMPLATIONS of Victor Hugo Suzanne Nash, 2015-03-08 Victor Hugo's work presents the reader with a paradox nowhere more apparent than in the collection of more than 150 lyric poems entitled Les Contemplations. Although he insisted upon structural unity, his complex artistic creations often seem disordered and digressive. Suzanne Nash examines this contradiction and she proposes here a new approach to Les Contemplations that reveals how it may be read as a unified allegory of Hugo's understanding of the creative process. The author's reading heightens the subtleties of individual poems by placing them within the context of the collection. She clarifies the poet's use of rhetorical devices and illuminating Les Contemplations as a metapoetic creation shows how it can serve as a guide to Hugo's other works. The first two chapters present evidence of Hugo's narrative intention: place his work within an allegorical tradition and describe the structure of the allegory. One poem, Pasteurs et troupeaux, is analyzed as a paradigm for the whole and a single theme: that of L'opoldine as sacrificial muse and figure for poetic language is traced through the six books. The author demonstrates Hugo's narrative purpose in his use of rhetorical forms and examines, according to the predominance of themes, images and technical devices, the six chapters as steps in the religious poetic allegory. Originally published in 1977, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.
