Jsc Question Paper2014:

Minerals Yearbook Geological Survey, Interior Department, Mines Bureau, 2019-02-15 This volume covering metals and minerals contains chapters on approximately 90 commodities In addition this volume has chapters on mining and quarrying trends and on statistical surveying methods used by Minerals Information plus a statistical summary Equity and

Administration P. G. Turner, 2016-05-26 Each generation of lawyers in common law systems faces an important question what is the nature of equity as developed in English law and inherited by other common law jurisdictions While some traditional explanations of equity remain useful including the understanding of equity as a system that qualifies the legal rights people ordinarily have under judge made law and under legislation other common explanations are unhelpful or misleading This volume considers a distinct and little noticed view of equity By examining the ways in which courts of equity have addressed a range of practical problems regarding the administration of deliberately created schemes for the management of others affairs modern equity can be seen to have a strongly facilitative character The extent and limits on this characterisation of equity are explored in chapters covering equity s attitude to administration in various public and private settings in common law systems Spacewear Barbara Brownie, 2019-01-10 Today we are living in the New Space

Age where mass commercial space travel is almost within our grasp This otherworldly possibility has opened up new cultural images of space both real and fictional and has caused fashion design and spacesuit engineering to intersect in new exciting ways Spacewear traverses this uncharted territory by exploring the changing imagination of space in fashion and fashion in space from the first Space Age to the 21st century Exploring how space travel has stylistically and technologically framed fashion design on earth and how we need to revisit established design practices for the weightless environment Spacewear connects the catwalk and the space station This book draws together speculative fantasies in sci fi films such as Star Trek and 2001 A Space Odyssey with the engineered spacesuits Biosuit and the NASA Z 2 and with catwalk interpretations by the likes of Alexander McQueen Hussein Chalayan Andr Courr ges and Iris van Herpen While the development of commercial space agencies has led to new concerns for style in garments for outer space that re think fundamental design principles such as drape high fashion has experimented with new possibilities for weightlessness that extend far beyond the 1960s vision of Space Age metallic fabrics and helmet style headwear Brownie takes the reader on a fascinating journey from fantasy to function and to form deepening our understanding of this new category of fashion that is prompting new approaches to garment design and construction both on earth and in outer space Gender and the Judiciary in Africa

Gretchen Bauer, Josephine Dawuni, 2015-10-30 Between 2000 and 2015 women ascended to the top of judiciaries across Africa most notably as chief justices of supreme courts in common law countries like Ghana Nigeria Sierra Leone Gambia Malawi Lesotho and Zambia but also as presidents of constitutional courts in civil law countries such as Benin Burundi Gabon Niger and Senegal Most of these appointments was a first in terms of the gender of the chief justice At the same time women are being appointed in record numbers as magistrates judges and justices across the continent While women s increasing numbers and roles in African executives and legislatures have been addressed in a burgeoning scholarly literature very little work has focused on women in judiciaries This book addresses the important issue of the increasing numbers and varied roles of women judges and justices as judiciaries evolve across the continent Scholars of law gender politics and African politics provide overviews of recent developments in gender and the judiciary in nine African countries that represent north east southern and west Africa as well as a range of colonial experiences postcolonial trajectories and legal systems including mixes of common civil customary or sharia law In the process each chapter seeks to address the following questions What has been the historical experience of the judicial system in a given country from before colonialism until the present What is the current court structure and where are the women judges justices magistrates and other women located What are the selection or appointment processes for joining the bench and in what ways may these help or hinder women to gain access to the courts as judges and justices Once they become judges do women on the bench promote the rights of women through their judicial powers What are the challenges and obstacles facing women judges and justices in Africa Timely and relevant in this era in which governmental accountability and transparency are essential to the consolidation of democracy in Africa and when women are accessing significant leadership positions across the continent this book considers the substantive and symbolic representation of women s interests by women judges and the wider implications of their presence for changing institutional norms and advancing the rule of law and human rights
