La littérature existante n'a pas suffisamment exploré les potentialités d'élargissement des relations existantes entre l'UE et ses voisins du Sud pouvant mener vers un développement similaire celui qu'ont connu certains pays de l'Est. L'examen des stratégies adoptées par chacun des pays du Maghreb en termes d'ouverture et de rapprochement l'UE démontre qu'il existe un gisement d'opportunités encore largement inexploités. D'ailleurs la mobilisation par l'UE durant ces vingt dernières années d'un ensemble de mécanismes et d'instruments spécifiques au profit des PECO a été déterminante pour leur intégration dans l'espace communautaire leur modernisation et leur développement de manière générale institutionnel socio-économique et régional. Tirant les leçons de cette nouvelle forme de gouvernance russe nous avons identifié un modèle d'actions susceptible de favoriser le double objectif rapprochement et développement qui puisse répondre la fois aux priorités européennes recherche de stabilité et sécuriser ses frontières et ceux des pays du Maghreb recherche de croissance et développement. Pour résoudre cette équation la définition d'une stratégie de priorisation reposant sur une Nouvelle politique communautaire spécifique peut constituer une voie privilégiée pour doter les pays récepteurs d'un cadre normatif et d'actions suffisamment incitatifs pour réaliser les réformes nécessaires. D'ailleurs l'étude des enjeux et des implications du rapprochement du Maroc l'UE Statut Avancé constitue une base empirique intéressante pour poursuivre la réflexion sur la voie optimum emprunter pour donner un nouveau souffle au partenariat entre les pays du Sud et l'UE.
