The Cambridge History of English Literature Sir Adolphus William Ward, Alfred Rayney Waller, 1912 The Cambridge History of English Literature: The age of Dryden Sir Adolphus William Ward, Alfred Rayney Waller, 1912 The Cambridge History of English Literature, 1912 Award Today's English Version, 360 Good News Nelsonword Publishing Group, 1977-10 The Leisure Hour, 1897 Envisioning a Tibetan Luminary William M. Gorvine, 2019

Envisioning a Tibetan Luminary examines the religious biography of Shardza Tashi Gyaltsen 1859 1934 the most significant modern figure representing the Tibetan B n religion a vital minority tradition that is underrepresented in Tibetan studies The work is based on fieldwork conducted in eastern Tibet and in the B n exile community in India where traditional Tibetan scholars collaborated closely on the project Utilizing close readings of two versions of Shardza s life story along with oral history collected in B n communities this book presents and interprets the biographical image of this major figure culminating with an English translation of his life story William M Gorvine argues that the disciple biographer s literary portrait not only enacts and shapes religious ideals to foster faith among its readership but also attempts to quell tensions that had developed among his original audience Among the B n community today Shardza Tashi Gyaltsen has come to be unequivocally revered for an impressive textual legacy and a saintly death During his lifetime however he faced prominent critics within his own lineage who went so far as to issue polemical attacks against him As Gorvine shows the biographical texts that inform us about Shardza s life are best understood when read on multiple registers with attention given to the ways in which the religious ideals on display reflect the broader literary cultural and historical contexts within which they were envisioned and articulated
