 Shannon Wells-Lassagne,2017-01-20 As American television continues to garner considerable esteem rivalling the seventh art in its cinematic aesthetics and the complexity of its narratives one aspect of its development has been relatively unexamined While film has long acknowledged its tendency to adapt an ability that contributed to its status as narrative art capable of translating canonical texts onto the screen television adaptations have seemingly been relegated to the miniseries or classic serial From remakes and reboots to transmedia storytelling loose adaptations or adaptations which last but a single episode the recycling of pre existing narrative is a practice that is just as common in television as in film and this text seeks to rectify that oversight examining series from M A S H to Game of Thrones Pride and Prejudice to Castle A History of British, Irish and American Literature Hans-Peter Wagner,2021-10-04 The third revised and enlarged edition contains discussions of British Irish and American literary works up to 2020 Focussing on outstanding writings in prose poetry drama and non fiction the book covers the time from the Anglo Saxon period to the 21st century The feature that makes this literary history unique among its rivals is the coverage of television web series as a particular form of postmodern drama The chapters on recent drama now contain detailed analyses of the development of TV and web series from Britain Ireland and America with extensive discussions of those series now considered classics In addition there are several major innovative features To begin with each century is introduced by a survey of the socio political and cultural backgrounds in which the literary works are embedded Furthermore extensive visual material more than 160 engravings cartoons and paintings has been integrated This visual aspect as well as the introductory sections on art for each century give the reader an excellent idea of the symbiosis between visual and literary representations Further innovative aspects include discussions of non fictional works from literary criticism and theory travel writing historiography and the social sciences analyses of such popular genres as crime fiction science fiction fantasy the Western horror fiction and children s literature footnotes explaining technical and historical terms and events a detailed glossary of literary terms chronological tables for British Anglo Irish and American literatures an updated cut off date 2020 extensive bibliography containing suggestions for further reading American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Vitale V.
