Le Grand Passage:

André Bazin, the Critic as Thinker R. J. Cardullo, 2017-01-28 André Bazin 1918-58 is credited with almost single handedly establishing the study of film as an accepted intellectual pursuit as well as with being the spiritual father of the French New Wave. Among those who came under his tutelage were four who would go on to become the most renowned directors of the postwar French cinema: François Truffaut, Jean-Luc Godard, Jacques Rivette, and Claude Chabrol. Bazin can also be considered the principal instigator of the equally influential auteur theory: the idea that since film is an art form, the director of a movie must be perceived as the chief creator of its unique cinematic style. André Bazin the Critic as Thinker: American Cinema from Early Chaplin to the Late 1950s contains for the first time in English in one volume much if not all of Bazin's writings on American cinema on directors such as Orson Welles, Charles Chaplin, Preston Sturges, Alfred Hitchcock, Howard Hawks, John Huston, Nicholas Ray, Erich von Stroheim, and Elia Kazan, and on films such as High Noon, Citizen Kane, Rear Window, Limelight, Scarface, Niagara, The Red Badge of Courage, Greed, and Sullivan's Travels. André Bazin the Critic as Thinker: American Cinema from Early Chaplin to the Late 1950s also features a sizable scholarly apparatus including a contextual introduction to Bazin's life and work, a complete bibliography of Bazin's writings on American cinema, and credits of the films discussed. This volume thus represents a major contribution to the still growing academic discipline of cinema studies as well as a testament to the continuing influence of one of the world's pre-eminent critical thinkers. The Description and Natural History of the Coasts of North America \(Acadia\) Nicolas Denys, William Francis Ganong, 1908 The Publications of the Champlain Society, 1908 , Three Women in Dark Times Sylvie Courtine-Denamy, 2000 Three women all philosophers, all of Jewish descent, provide a human face for a decade of crisis in this powerful and moving book. The dark years when the Nazis rose to power are here seen through the lives of Edith Stein, a disciple of Husserl and author of La science et la croix who died in Auschwitz in 1942; Hannah Arendt, pupil of Heidegger and Jaspers and author of Eichmann in Jerusalem who unhesitatingly responded to Hitler by making a personal commitment to Zionism; and Simone Weil, a student of Alain and author of La pesanteur et la grâce. Following her subjects from 1933 to 1943, Sylvie Courtine-Denamy recounts how these three great philosophers of the twentieth century endeavored with profound moral commitment to address the issues confronting them. Condemned to exile, they not only sought to understand a horrible reality but also attempted to make peace with it. To do so, Edith Stein and Simone Weil encouraged a stoic acceptance of necessity, while Hannah Arendt argued for the capacity for renewal and the need to fight against the banality of evil. Courtine-Denamy also describes how, as a student, each woman caught the eye of her famous male teacher yet dared to criticize and go beyond him. She explores each one's sense of her femininity, her position on the woman question, and her relation to her Jewishness. All three, the author writes, are compelling figures who move us with their fierce desire to understand a world out of joint, reconcile it with itself, and despite everything, love it. H.O.
