Le Monde De Jeanpaul II Documents:

The Secular and the Sacred William Safran, 2004-08-02 What is the place of religion in modern political systems This volume addresses that question by focusing on ten countries across several geographic areas Western and East Central Europe North America the Middle East and South Asia These countries are comparable in the sense that they are committed to constitutional rule have embraced a more or less secular culture and have formal guarantees of freedom of religion Yet in all the cases examined here religion impinges on the political system in the form of legal establishment semi legitimation subvention and or selective institutional arrangements and its role is reflected in cultural norms electoral behaviour and public policies The relationship between religion and politics comes in many varieties in differing countries yet all are faced with three major challenges modernity democracy and the increasingly multi ethnic and multi religious nature of their societies

The Intimate. Polity and the Catholic Church Karel Dobbelaere, Alfonso Pérez-Agote , 2015-02-27 The waning influence of the Catholic church in the ethical and political debate For centuries the Catholic Church was able to impose her ethical rules in matters related to the intimate that is questions concerning life from its beginning until its end and the family in the so called Catholic countries in Western Europe When the polity started to introduce legislation that was in opposition to the Catholic ethic the ecclesiastical authorities and part of the population reacted The media reported massive manifestations in France against same sex marriages and in Spain against the de penalization of abortion In Italy the Episcopal conference entered the political field in opposition to the relaxation of several restrictive legal rules concerning medically assisted procreation and exhorted the voters to abstain from voting so that the referendum did not obtain the necessary quorum In Portugal to the contrary the Church made a pact with the prime minister so that the law on same sex marriages did not include the possibility of adoption And in Belgium the Episcopal conference limited its actions to clearly expressing with religious legal and anthropological arguments its opposition to such laws which all other Episcopal conferences did also In this book the authors analyse the full spectrum of the issue including the emergence of such laws the political discussions the standpoints defended in the media by professionals ethicists and politicians the votes in the parliaments the political interventions of the Episcopal conferences and the attitude of professionals As a result the reader understands what was at stake and the differences in actions of the various Episcopal conferences The authors also analyse the pro and con evaluations among the civil population of such actions by the Church Finally in a comparative synthesis they discuss the public positions taken by Pope Francis to evaluate if a change in Church policy might be possible in the near future Research by GERICR Groupe européen de recherche interdisciplinaire sur le changement religieux a European interdisciplinary research group studying religious changes coordinated by Alfonso Pérez-Agote Religion, Politics and Law in the European Union Lucian N. Leustean, John T.S. Madeley, 2013-09-13 EU enlargement to countries in Central and Eastern Europe in 2004 the inclusion of Bulgaria and Romania in 2007 and increasing debates on Turkey's membership has dramatically transformed the European Union into a multi religious space Religious communities are not only shaping identities but are also influential factors in political discourse This edited volume examines the activities of religious actors in the context of supranational European institutions and the ways in which they have responded to the idea of Europe at local and international levels By bringing together scholars working in political science history law and sociology this volume analyses key religious factors in contemporary EU architecture such as the transformation of religious identities the role of political and religious leaders EU legislation on religion and the activities of religious lobbies This book was published as a special issue of Religion State and Society

Thinking Globally and Responding Locally in the Church Thomas Knieps-Port le Roi,Shaji George Kochuthara,David Dawson Vasquez,2023-07 How has Pope Francis s groundbreaking document on marriage and family Amoris Laetitia been implemented in Africa In Asia In Latin America In this volume scholars from across these regions reflect on their experiences correcting the overly western focus of most reactions to AL The contributions look at local issues like polygamy in Africa as well as more global issues in a local context like feminism in Indonesia and synodality in Colombia The reader will find that concerns about marriage and family can be similar throughout the world or specific to different contexts As a whole the book contributes to a more diverse and revisited catholic understanding of marriage and family

The Church in Pluralist Society Cornelius J. Casey,Fáinche Ryan,2019-11-30 Vatican II opened new pathways to engagement with societies shaped by modernity Its project could be read as an attempt to interpret the stance of the church in relation to the whole project of modernity The fundamental presumption of this collection of essays is that it is timely indeed imperative to keep alive the question of the church s self understanding in its journey alongside the complex often rebellious always restless mind of the modern world Cornelius J Casey and F inche Ryan have assembled some of the most prominent commentators on ecclesiastical and social political engagements from the fields of theology political philosophy social theory and cultural criticism The contributors present differing perspectives on the role of the church Some argue that pluralism is here to stay Others point out that the liberal pluralism of contemporary society is aggressively powered by global corporate consumerism This book with its variety of voices explores these issues largely from within the Catholic tradition The role of the church in a pluralist society is a narrative that is being written by many people at many different levels of the church Contributors J Bryan Hehir Terry Eagleton Patrick J Deneen Hans Joas William T Cavanaugh Massimo Faggioli F inche Ryan Patrick Riordan and Cornelius J Casey

Shades of Blue Félix Krawatzek,Friedemann Pestel,Rieke Trimcev,Gregor Feindt,2025-02-15 In Shades of Blue Félix Krawatzek Friedemann Pestel Rieke Trim ev and Gregor Feindt investigate the political project of Europe as it oscillates between the extremes of expectations of an ever wider integration and fear of disintegration The authors interrogate and chart the space between these polarities by tracking the many competing conceptions of Europe in European public discourse and relate these meanings to national regional and ideological divisions Based on qualitative discourse analyses of newspaper articles from six

European Union member states between 2004 and 2023 Shades of Blue shifts how we think about Europe's integration and disintegration and offers a new perspective on Europeanization With twelve debates chronicling Europe's past and discussing the implications for Europe's future these authors uncover how politicians intellectuals and journalists negotiate European senses of belonging Shades of Blue moves beyond the binaries of hope and despair to uncover a more nuanced picture of Europe

Trinity in Unity in Christian-Muslim Relations Risto Jukko, 2007-07-30 Christian Muslim relations are one of the major issues in contemporary theology of religions This book deals with the theological foundations that have been laid for these relations in the recent official documents 1966 2005 of the Secretariat for Non Christians the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue There is a continuous interrelationship in recent Roman Catholic thinking between philosophy existentialism and personalism and theology nouvelle théologie and kerygmatic theology This study shows that the doctrine of the Trinitarian nature of God is the cornerstone on which this documentation rests and that the Trinitarian dimension of Roman Catholic theology of religions will challenge the Christology of 21st century theology

Beitter, 2001 The New Europe at the Crossroads Europe's Classical Heritage in the Twenty first Century consists of a selection of essays presented at the New Europe at the Crossroads conferences in York England 1998 and at Teikyo University in Berlin Germany 1999 The diverse contributions from scholars in the fields of education philosophy political science modern languages literature physics theology and economics show that a truly united Europe must remain a distant utopia as long as cultural religious and ethnic identities are a cause for repression discrimination and strife The essays go beyond the usual political and economic discussions associated with a united Europe They broach the question of Europe's identity in the twenty first century and raise the specter of a Europe that continues to be divided by ethnic differences cultural intolerance and an inability to come to terms with its others
