Gastronomic Tourism Anukrati Sharma,Jeetesh Kumar,Samik Ray,2025-09-18 Gastronomy is a fundamental aspect of culture and the food and cuisine of any region can provide rich insights into the local lifestyle and traditions Gastronomic tourism therefore involves visiting food producers restaurants food festivals or other establishments where visitors can dine and experience the typical products of a region It is an enjoyable way for tourists to discover the cultural heritage of the places they visit and culinary pleasure is becoming an increasingly decisive factor when choosing a travel destination In certain regions gastronomy has been recognised as an Intangible Cultural Heritage by UNESCO and the promotion of local traditional cuisine can be a way to rediscover and preserve local or regional values through culinary riches Gastronomic tourism is also a factor of economic improvement for different destinations particularly in developing countries This book emphasises the importance of many related factors in gastronomic tourism which often focuses exclusively on food and cooking rather than the whole experience The book therefore also focuses on culture commitment passion learning emotions and experiences associated with gastronomy and considers how gastronomic tourism can contribute to achieving Sustainable Development Goals
