Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev Book:

Rudin Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev, 2022-09-04 In Rudin Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev intricately explores the conflict between intellectual ideals and the realities of Russian society in the 19th century. Through the character of Dmitry Rudin, a charismatic but ultimately insubstantial revolutionary, Turgenev captures the disillusionment of the intelligentsia who aspire to effect change yet fail to bridge the gap between ambition and action. The novel employs a rich lyrical prose style typical of Turgenev's works, allowing for profound psychological insights and the subtle play of societal norms while also situating itself within the context of the burgeoning debates concerning nihilism and reform in pre-revolutionary Russia. Turgenev, born into a noble family, was deeply influenced by the socio-political climate of his time. His experiences in both Russia and Western Europe fostered a unique perspective on the dichotomy of tradition and progress. Rudin emerged during an era of significant change, reflecting Turgenev's own ambivalence towards the social reforms and the intellectual movements sweeping through Russia, which he scrutinized with a keen yet compassionate eye towards human fallibility. This novel is highly recommended for readers interested in not only Russian literature but also the philosophical tensions of intelligence and social responsibility. sapping the root of her existence This sorrow could not be explained by grief for my father alone great as that was passionately as my mother had loved him sacredly as she cherished his memory No there was something else hidden there which I did not understand but which I felt felt confusedly and strongly as soon as I looked at those quiet impassive eyes at those very beautiful but also impassive lips which were not bitterly compressed but seemed to have congealed for good and all I have said that my mother loved me but there were moments when she spurned me when my presence was burdensome intolerable to her At such times she felt as it were an involuntary aversion for me and was terrified afterward reproaching herself with tears and clasping me to her heart I attributed these momentary fits of hostility to her shattered health to her unhappiness These hostile sentiments might have been evoked it is true in a certain measure by some strange outbursts which were incomprehensible even to me myself of wicked and criminal feelings which occasionally arose in me But these outbursts did not coincide with the moments of repulsion My mother constantly wore black as though she were in mourning We lived on a rather grand scale although we associated with no one
