Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow

My father always gave his share of the catch to me to guard while he went to help another group. At first I sat there patiently and proudly guarding the growing pile of fish. But then a group of my friends came by laughing and playing. They called me and I left my post to play with them for a few minutes but always with frequent glances at my pile of fish and with one eye on the figure of my father. If anyone came too near my fish or if my father turned in my direction, I hurried back to my post. But the morning was long and hot, and I was only five years old. I became tired, hungry and thirsty, food sellers went to and fro among the fishermen, with traps of tempting cakes, fruit and sweet upon their heads. I looked longingly at the food, but I had no money to buy things with, then one day,
