

Redemption In Khaled Hosseini's 'The Kite Runner'

11 pages | 2523 words

The Kite Runner, written by Khaled Hosseini, is a famous novel for its devastating and painfully honest depiction of identity, betrayal, deception, and atonement. The narrative portrays the journey of a boy escaping from his haunted childhood while torturing himself with his own contrition. These two concepts of identity and redemption play a vital role in creating a string that binds the characters together. As a reader of The Kite Runner, one embarks on a journey that leads through the life of the glamorous prosperous Afghans, as well as the treacherous horrific life of those less fortunate. Most importantly, however, one encounters face-to-face the good and evil that comes out when these two very distinct lives are intertwined. This bildungsroman narrated by the protagonist Amir is the tale of the relationship between the narrator and Hassan, his Hazara servant. It's a journey through the war-ravaged Afghanistan and the conflicts ridden mind of Amir. The memory plays a central part in the reconstruction of the tale as the protagonist lays bare his inner conflicts and foibles. The simple act of running after kites finds a different and strangely problematic voice in the narrative. Loyalty, conflicts, fear, strength, weakness mire together to give a color that is Hosseini's Kite Runner. Amir as a child is physically weak and lacks natural courage and he finds a resort in the arms of books and the world of letters. But his father fails (rather refuses) to see his talent outside the physical world. Amir's soul mate is Hassan. Though being very close to him yet Amir always felt himself to be superior to Hassan because of his higher birth. Their lives take a different turn when his inner weakness makes him betray Hassan. Amir realizes his inner weakness but he refuses to accept the flaw even as it continues to eat him from inside. He feels staying away from Hassan would cure him of his weakness. He fails terribly. The tale is Amir's journey of redemption and his attempt to win back his nang and names (honor and pride) in his own eyes. The use of the narrative not only gives the novel its basic unity, but it also helps in creating a web that personalizes the tale and colors it with an honest inner view. One may often try to identify one's own inner flaws as personified in others but such an act invariably ends up fragmenting the self and its relationship with the other becomes all the more complicated. Hosseini brings out this aspect deftly in the novel. Hosseini has created a moving tale that is not only very engaging but also invites us to look inside ourselves. A painfully honest story. Amir's 'unatoned sins', as they are described in the novel's opening chapter, have plagued his conscience and cast an oppressive shadow over his joys and triumphs. The phone call interrupts Amir's seemingly comfortable life as a married man and newly-published novelist in America and launches an epic journey back to Afghanistan in search of redemption. The present paper explores guilt and perseverance in The Kite Runner as the motivation for an...
