Kofi Growing Pains:

Kofi H L Daniel,2015-01-30 Kofi is from a family of cocoa farmers but although he respects his father and loves his mother he does not want to be a cocoa farmer like his father and grandfather before him He wants to study at university and become a doctor in the big city Now that he is growing tall and handsome he is beginning to attract admiring glances from every woman in his village particularly rich beautiful Tamara But it is not Tamara that Kofi has his eye on A short story about coming of age in a rural community in Ghana The Nation ,2000-04 The International Politics of Human Rights Monica Serrano,Thomas G. Weiss,2014-01-03 The responsibility to protect R2P is at a crossroads the latest in a journey that is only ten years old This book present debates on the prevention of mass atrocities to R2P s normative prospects The book addresses key questions as a way to inform and drive on going conversations about R2P Moving beyond well rehearsed debates about the tensions and meanings around sovereignty in R2P practice the book focuses on advancing the credibility of the preventive dimensions of R2P whilst simultaneously examining the extent of R2P s current value added in state decision making especially for the 2011 actions in Libya and C te d Ivoire Questions addressed include Did the R2P framework of the 2005 World Summit Declaration intend to mould sovereignty and if so how Can R2P break or revert cycles of violence How can one determine the appropriate duration and timing of the preventive and protective phases of R2P Who what should be the targets of preventive action and how does this have an impact on R2P diplomacy Under which conditions are particular policy tools likely to be effective Which state and regional actors are best suited to using these tools What are the barriers to successful preventive action how can they be overcome What capacities need to be built at the national regional and international levels in order to operationalize R2P s preventive agenda Examining a wide range of countries this work will be essential reading for students and scholars of international human rights international organizations peacekeeping and conflict resolution First Along the River Benjamin Kline,2022-01-06 First Along the River A Brief History of the U S Environmental Movement provides students with a balanced historical perspective on the history of the environmental movement in relation to major social and political events in U S history from the pre colonial era to the present The book highlights important people and events places critical concepts in context and shows the impact of government industry and population on the American landscape Comprehensive yet brief First Along the River discusses the religious and philosophical beliefs that shaped Americans relationship to the environment traces the origins and development of government regulations that impact Americans use of natural resources and shows why popular environmental groups were founded and how they changed over time The fifth edition includes up to date coverage of the environmental movement and developments including an overview of environmental issues since 2012 environmental policies impacted by the Trump administration the coronavirus pandemic and the switch back to a more global perspective under the Biden administration

Black Orpheus, Transition, and Modern Cultural Awakening in Africa Peter Benson,2023-04-28 Black Orpheus and

Transition stand as towering landmarks in Africa's cultural and intellectual history between 1957 and 1978 serving as incubators for the continent's postcolonial literary and artistic awakening Founded in 1957 by Ulli Beier in Nigeria Black Orpheus was a platform for artistic experimentation and dialogue initially inspired by the Paris based Presence Africaine but quickly evolving into its own distinctive voice Beier's initiatives such as the Mbari Clubs in Ibadan and Oshogbo complemented the magazine's mission offering creative spaces that nurtured some of Africa's most notable artists and writers By 1961 Transition founded in Uganda by Rajat Neogy emerged as a dynamic forum for cultural redefinition and incisive political commentary Both publications became indispensable for grappling with the intellectual and cultural challenges of decolonization exploring themes ranging from African aesthetics to the politics of independence Despite their profound influence neither magazine enjoyed smooth trajectories Black Orpheus weathered internal upheavals with a second editorial generation led by Abiola Irele and J P Clark taking the reins and redefining its vision Meanwhile Transition faced outright suppression when Neogy was imprisoned for sedition in Uganda Relocating to Ghana under the stewardship of Wole Soyinka the magazine continued to thrive but both journals struggled to adapt to Africa's rapidly evolving post independence realities Their pages reflected a rich tapestry of debates pan Africanism versus tribalism artistic primitivism versus modernism and indigenous languages versus Western literary conventions Ultimately these magazines were more than periodicals they were crucibles of creativity and intellectual exchange that catalyzed a generation of thinkers and writers While their eventual closures were due to economic and logistical challenges their legacy as formative platforms for Africa's modern cultural identity remains unparalleled This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1986

The Many Paths of Change in International Law Nico Krisch, Ezgi Yildiz, 2024-01-22 How does international law change How does it adapt to meet global challenges in a volatile social and political context The Many Paths of Change in International Law offers fresh theoretically informed and empirically rich answers to these questions It traces drivers conditions and consequences of change across the different fields of international law and paints a complex and varied picture very much in contrast with the relatively static imagery prevalent in many accounts today Drawing on inspirations from international law international relations sociology and legal theory this book explores how international law changes through means other than treaty making Highlighting the social dynamics through which different areas and institutional contexts have generated their own pathways it presents a theoretical framework for tracing change processes and the conditions that affect their success Based on this framework each contribution illuminates the paths of change we observe in contemporary international law The explorations centre on strategies forms forces and social contexts and draw on primary source material and in depth case studies Overall the volume offers a fascinating account of an international legal order in flux with a dynamic not captured through traditional doctrinal lenses and helps situate change processes and their varied implications in international law and politics A relevant book for everyone wanting to understand change and its consequences in international law This is an open access title It is made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 International licence It is available to read and download as a PDF version on the Oxford Academic platform The United Nations Kent J.
