

FIFTY YEARS OF THE KOHLER CO. OBSERVE WITH BIG FESTIVAL

pavilion. And a big athletic program was carried out. John Weber's "Prize Band of America" played concerts both afternoon and evening, and the Kohler band, under the leadership of the veteran Director John Schmidt, also contributed a concert.

Food Is a Feature

It is rather hard to single out any one feature of the festival as enjoying the highest regard of the crowd, but the Hyatt and hamburger stands gave everything else a close race. An unbelievable amount of these commodities was consumed, on the authority of the Recreation club. It is a fact that the club owns its crates of a liberal percentage of excess over the consumption at the big festival last year and at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon the supply was so seriously threatened with exhaustion that additional orders had to be placed with the various supply houses.

The same can be said of such other dainties as ice cream, crack-cakes, chocolate, children's pretzels, etc., in the festival and they made terrific inroads on the food supply.

Emergency Arrangements. The Recreation club had excellent emergency arrangements. There was a rest room for women in the school room, the first of the school rooms was fitted as a nursery for babies. This was one of the most effectively run in the village. A professional nurse and several volunteer assistants were present all afternoon to care for the babies of the youngsters, to aid mothers in the emergency and to care for the necessary with babies from time to time.

And one lost baby was turned in, a fat, blue-eyed little one. The child was not really lost, but had been sent to the school to be looked after. It had awakened in advance of schedule, which was not to be expected, and with a merry sound around organ and the talk of those who were in the nursery. A small time in the nursery when one observer called and did not seem to find the child. All in all, the arrangements of the entire festival were well planned. A dancing floor opened on the dancing floor adjoining the Recreation club. The professional entertainers announced to appear did not make good. But the other numbers were well enjoyed.

The Smith Sisters, two tiny dancers, were really remarkable performance, doing intricate toe dancing evolutions with all the accompaniment of the expert danseuse. The women in the big crowd, the youngsters particularly "cute" and they made a pronounced hit.

Traveller and a remarkable contortionist, and Alfred Burkhardt, a trick cyclist, featuring the high and low tricks and the remainder of the program and scored heavily with the crowd. The platform was thrown open to the music of the Marquardt's orchestra. Dancing continued till 7:30, and after a short intermission, the band concert was resumed at 9 o'clock, continuing till midnight.

A unique and unusual feature, in that it was contributed by a member of the exhibition, was the exhibition of aviation by a plane from Sheboygan Airport, of which Captain E. R. Weber, of the organization, president of the village, is the owner.

Amusement for Everyone. The amusements in the Afternoon were so arranged that anyone might take a chance and put in an agreeable. Weber's band was playing on the bluff midway of having the other side of the lake and managers were engaged in a baseball game. The Kohler and American Chair teams of the Manufacturers League. A better brand of ball there was dancing on the pavilion floor, a tennis tournament was in progress. The Kohler band played later in the afternoon, the concession stands were filling out refreshments, the amusements for the children were in full blast. The invited guests could spend some time examining the Kohler exhibits, from the ducts, the sale of which throughout the world makes the big festival possible. It is a fact that all could not be seen at once, but the thing most attractive to the individual was the chance to see the crowd and avoiding crushes.

The Crowning Event

Crowning the festival, epitomizing it as a happy gathering of Kohler people and their friends was the concert by the Weber band in the nature theatre in the evening.

Above the theatre was a magnificent cluster of lights, suspended from a stage marked in the pine, a veritable bouquet brilliance, a sort of "electric light plant" as one facetious observer described it. There were similar clusters on standards surrounding the theatre and his above it floated Old Kohler in the rays of three immense search lights directed in many directions.

The band was seated below the big cluster and Director Weber, resplendent in his white costume of ceremony, presided over the concert with a smile almost paternal as he made his group of musicians respond to his baton.

The program was on a higher plane than is usual with band concerts, with selections from Guonod, Offenbach and Verdi, interspersed with compositions by modern masters of dancing.

It may be that the crowd likes the "Orpheus" overture rather better than any other, and this was probably because of its familiarity and also because of the spirit and grace of the Weber band. It was the well known coda. At the conclusion of this number the Nature theatre was closed for the evening.

The crowd was the largest ever assembled in this immense natural theatre for the festival. It had been provided immediately in front of the platform, across the brook on the west side of the ravine. But these cared for only a comparatively small portion of the crowd. The others sat on the encircling hillside, in no discomfort at all. They remained for the last note of the Star Spangled Banner and left the theatre with reluctance.

The quality of the band was revealed about as well through its performance of a Tobani arrangement of the opera, "The Barber of Seville," Faust, II, Trovatore and several other numbers. These numbers were to great extent familiar to the crowd, and no better informed musically could delight in the variety of instrumentation employed in the pot purri of the evening.

A demonstration of Weber's skill in arrangement was seen in Godfrey's "The Song of the Sea," a medley of jigs, reels, strathspeys and old loved songs. It almost set the crowd to dancing on the hillside.

The veteran director and his musicians were in excellent voice in their two concerts and added thousands of new admirers to their old ones.

Outstanding features of the concert were the cornet and the cornet solos of Frank Simon and the soprano solos of Miss Katherine H.

Mr. Simon came as an old friend. He had played at Kohler some years ago with his band. On the two occasions Saturday he was given an ovation, a sort of "Welcome home" and Mr. Simon justified the high opinion in which he is held at Kohler. His solo in the Afternoon was "The American Boy," an arrangement making possible the playing of intricate variations on familiar themes. Mr. Simon plays triple tongue cadenzas and chromatic runs with the ease and authority of a xylophone. Ordinarily only among violinists, cellists and pianists are found musicians with such instrumental mastery that displayed by Mr. Simon over his admittedly most difficult instrument.

And Miss Hoch won a place in Kohler hearts also. In the afternoon she sang a Strauss song, in the evening the big soprano aria from "La Traviata." Singing in the open makes special demands upon the artist, especially when the accompaniment is a military band. It involves volume and clarity of articulation. Miss Hoch possesses and her golden notes floated out to the big crowd on the still air with a penetration remarkable in the circumstances. Physically and vocally, Miss Hoch is an ideal singer for occasions such as this and she achieved on this occasion a personal triumph.

Baseball. The annual baseball game between the Branch Managers and the Home Office teams was one of the interesting events of the festival.

Coming from behind with a sudden spurt, the Branch Managers defeated the Home Office team 12 to 10. The game was fought from the very beginning. It was a nip and tuck business for both teams. The Home Office took the box of cigars away with the Branch Managers promising to make a match next year and take the prize. The score:
