Using iPhones, iPads, and iPods Matthew Connolly, Tony Cosgrave, 2014-10-28

Apple Inc. has sold more than 500 million iPhones, iPads, and iPod Touches. Library patrons are increasingly coming to libraries with the expectation that their Apple devices will work flawlessly with library services or that they can find an iPad to use at the library if they don't have one of their own. Libraries and librarians today are expected to be adept with the latest technology and to be able to apply it to popular use as well as scholarly research.

Using iPhones and iPads: A Practical Guide for Librarians offers library professionals a clear path to Apple readiness. The authors, a librarian and a software developer at a prominent research library, combine their experience in library public services and mobile technology to provide easy-to-follow, step-by-step instructions to help you get up to speed on ensuring that your library website and online resources are iDevice-friendly.
