Policy-Making in the GCC Neil Quilliam,Mark C. Thompson,2017-09-11 The GCC is a major player in the post 2011 reordering of the Middle East Despite the rise in prominence of individual Gulf states especially Kuwait Qatar Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates and the growth of the GCC as a collective entity surprisingly little attention has been paid to the actual mechanics of policy making in the region This book analyses the vital role that institutions are coming to play in shaping policy in the Gulf Arab states The research coincides with two key developments that have given institutions new importance in the policy process the emergence of a new generation of leaders in the Gulf and the era of low oil prices Both developments along with dramatic demographic change have compelled state and citizens to re evaluate the nature of the social contract that binds them together Contributors assess the changing relationship between state and citizen and evaluate the role that formal and informal institutions play in mediating such change and informing policy The book shows how academic social and economic institutions are responding to the increasingly complex process of decision making where citizens demand better services and further empowerment and states are obliged to seek wider counsel although wanting to retain ultimate authority With contributions from both academics and practitioners this book will be highly relevant for researchers and policymakers alike Resources in Education ,1998-12 Applied Practice for Educators of Gifted and Able Learners Hava E. Vidergor,Carole Ruth Harris,2015-07-21 This book is a comprehensive study and guide for the classroom teacher the gifted program coordinator and the graduate student who are challenged daily to provide for individual children who differ markedly but come under the umbrella of giftedness It serves as a wellspring that derives from theory while it offers practical application of theoretical construct in a wide variety of international settings from leaders in the field who demonstrate implementation of proven and field tested techniques and alternative scenarios to accommodate every classroom situation Contributors are internationally recognized experts who have come together to provide a sound reliable source for teachers of the gifted that will be utilized time and time again by practitioners and researchers alike Among internationally renowned scholars are Joyce Van Tassel Baska Susan Johnsen June Maker Belle Wallace Linda Kreger Silverman Dorothy Sisk Gillian Eriksson Miraca Gross Gilbert Clark Enid Zimmerman andRachel McAnallen Hava E Vidergor Ph D is lecturer of innovative pedagogy and curriculum design at Gordon Academic College and Arab Academic College of Education and holds a Ph D in Learning Instruction and Teacher Education with specializationin Gifted Education from the University of Haifa Israel Carole Ruth Harris Ed D formerly Director of G A T E S Research Evaluation is a consultant in education of the gifted in Central Florida who holds the doctorate from Columbia University where she studied with A Harry Passow and A J Tannenbaum She has served as Associate in International Education at Harvard University Research Associate at Teachers College Columbia University lecturer at University of Massachusetts Lowell and University of Hawaii Principal Investigator at Research Corporation of the University of Hawaii and Director of the Center for the Gifted in Ebeye
