My Ladder of Life Alan Duffy, 2011-03-01 My Ladder of Life is a depiction of a time gone by in the Lancashire Mill Town of Blackburn. It starts just before the Second World War and covers 73 years of Alan Duffy's life as an engineer, company owner, and family man. Alan's autobiography is set against an ever-changing social background and serves to remind the reader of the way things used to be. The life of an engineer might appear to be boring, but if Alan's own experiences are anything to go by, nothing could be further from the truth. Alan discovered he had entrepreneurial skills in his early forties and founded a successful engineering company that in three short years he'd sold on to an American Corporation; he continued to manage the company until 1993 when they relocated to the USA. Alan then started another engineering company. Alan's career has been rewarding and interesting and sometimes fraught with danger. Occasionally events that have befallen him which seem too funny to be true. My Ladder of Life encompasses such varied events as Alan having an audience with Pope John Paul 2 and seeing Frank Sinatra on the same day. Alan also writes about his family who have brought infinite love and support to him throughout the years.

An Ordinary Indian D. P. Soni, 2011 The incidences narrated here are faced by the common man in India in his day to day routine life. He does not have time to react to it. His no reaction attitude eventually became known to the perpetrators of the atrocities. His distress, agonies, worries are overshadowed behind his efforts to survive; he is at the receiving end in most of cases. The medical professionals, bureaucrats, politicians, advocates, judiciary, NGOs, social workers, traders, MNCs and others all trying to derive any kind of benefits from him. But his trust in human beings is intact even though he faces various atrocities his faith still not shaken His conflicts are usually with other common man or with the other categories of people who knowingly or unknowingly create favorable or unfavorable situation for him Usually unaware of the strategies hatched out against him he is a darling of the political system before elections and an ignored one thereafter He watches the things taking shape understand their meanings aware of their repercussions but waits for others to take lead before reacting Here no imaginary characters narrated just to give it tale form some changes are made to relate them and convert to tale form     Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112107850775 and Others ,1916     The
