Klotz,Smal Ndaba,2022-12-30 This book provides an engaging and contextualised insight into a South African township based arts centre that has survived the vicissitudes of steady militarisation in townships during some of the worst years of apartheid as well as the exhilaration of a new democratic policy while attempting to circumnavigate different policies and funding dispensations Sibikwa provides arts centres across the world and especially those in decolonising countries with strategies for survival in tumultuous times This multi disciplinary book maps and co ordinates wider historical political and social contextual concerns and events with matters specific to a community based east of Johannesburg and provides an exploration and analysis by experts of authentic theatre making and performance dance indigenous music arts in education and NGO governance It has contemporary significance and raises important questions regarding inclusivity and transformation the function and future of arts centres community based applied arts practices creativity and international partnerships This study will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre and performance indigenous music dance

25 chapters authored by some of the leading researchers in the field the Human Resources Development Review 2008 provides an extensive overview of the contextual factors driving human resources development in South Africa A key theme throughout the volume is the importance of a multi faceted skills development strategy operating at three levels The first entails high skills policies aimed at expanding export oriented manufacturing production and services provision particularly in new globally competitive niche areas The second relates to the economy s ongoing need for intermediate skills as is evident in the shortage of skilled artisans and technologists Finally the provision of basic entry level skills is important in view of the urgent need for large scale job creation schemes triggered by public sector initiatives to ameliorate high levels of unemployment and despondency especially amongst the youth South Africa Survey ,2006 The Report: South
