Winslow Homer William R. Cross, 2025-09-23 The definitive life of the painter who forged American identity visually in art and illustration with an impact comparable to that of Walt Whitman and Mark Twain in poetry and prose yet whose own story has remained largely untold In 1860 at the age of twenty four Winslow Homer 1836-1910 sold Harper's Weekly two dozen wood engravings carved into boxwood blocks and transferred to metal plates to stamp on paper One was a scene that Homer saw on a visit to Boston his hometown His illustration shows a crowd of abolitionists on the brink of eviction from a church at their front is Frederick Douglass declaring the freedom of all mankind Homer born into the Panic of 1837 and raised in the years before the Civil War came of age in a nation in crisis He created multivalent visual tales both quintessentially American and quietly replete with narrative for and about people of all races and ages Whether using pencil watercolor or most famously oil Homer addressed the hopes and fears of his fellow

Americans and invited his viewers into stories embedded with universal timeless questions of purpose and meaning Like his contemporaries Twain and Whitman Homer captured the landscape of a rapidly changing country with an artist s probing insight His tale is one of America in all its complexity and contradiction as he evolved and adapted to the restless spirit of invention transforming his world In Winslow Homer American Passage William R Cross reveals the man behind the art It is the surprising story of a life led on the front lines of history In that life this Everyman made archetypal images of American culture endowed with a force of moral urgency through which they speak to all people today Includes Color Images and Maps
