LEGAL STYLE GUIDE

Formatting

- If rules allow, use Century Schoolbook, 14-point font. Align left or justify. Indent first line 0.5.
- If aligning left, reduce jagged edges using optional hyphens [Ctrl + -] so only part of the word creating the gap spills onto next line. If justifying, do the same to reduce gaps between words.
- Learn to use Styles, Modify Styles instead of modifying each heading or body text.
- If your court, local rules, and local custom allow, use true double-spacing [Paragraph + Line spacing + Exactly At: font size × 2]. If unsure, especially in a jurisdiction that uses page limits, research your judge, call the clerk's office, and consider dropping an explanatory footnote in your certificate.
- Use italics, not underlining or bold. Also emphasize with em dashes, colons, word placement.
- Use indented, MS Word single-spaced (true double-space between) numbers and bullets for lists.
- For headings, keep lines together and keep with next. Eliminate orphan headings.
- Use orphan/widow control. If possible, aim for clean page breaks, meaning a new paragraph starts at the top of each page and a full paragraph ends at the bottom of each page.
- Modify sentences to prevent "runts" or "short lines," meaning don't let a paragraph end with one or two short words that spill over onto the last line, creating too much white space.

Style and Tone

- Value brevity, clarity, and grace, over every other element of style.
- Be the voice of reason: no hyperbole, inflammatory rhetoric, or personal attacks.
- In the facts, don't argue or editorialize. Show, don't tell.
- Whether you're discussing the facts or the law, don't overpromise and underdeliver.
- Don't personally attack the lower-court judge or opposing counsel; do show why they're wrong.
- When your first draft is complete, run BriefCatch and consider all style suggestions.
- After making style changes, run BriefCatch stats. Aim for scores of 90 and above.

Structure

- Use shorter (ideally no more than two lines) headings for factual sections.
- Use one- to four-line complete-sentence headings for argument sections.
- Use ALL CAPS for section headings only (e.g., TABLE OF AUTHORITIES, ARGUMENT).
- Never use ALL CAPS or Initial Caps for point headings.
- Make argument point headings flow like a summary of the argument in the TOC.
- If rules allow, consider opening with a Bryan-Garner-style syllogistic deep-issue statement.
- In an Introduction, frame the issues, your best legal and equitable points, and the relief requested.
- In the facts, tell a chronological story, ideally from the client's point of view.
- Arrange legal arguments from strongest to weakest, then consider dropping the weakest.
- Make your affirmative case on each point first, then refute the other side's arguments.
- Don't throw away the conclusion. If rules and tradition allow, restate the best legal and equitable reasons why you should win and the specific relief you're requesting.
