Namibia S Rainbow Project Gay Rights In An African Nation:

Namibia's Rainbow Project Robert Lorway, 2014-11-28 What are the consequences when international actors step in to protect LGBT people from discrimination with programs that treat their sexualities in isolation from the facts on the ground Robert Lorway tells the story of the unexpected effects of The Rainbow Project TRP a LGBT rights program for young Namibians begun in response to President Nujoma's notorious hate speeches against homosexuals Lorway highlights the unintended consequences of this program many of which ran counter to the goals of local and international policy makers and organizers He shows how TRP inadvertently diminished civil opportunities at the same time as it sought to empower youth to claim their place in Namibian culture and society Tracking the fortunes of TRP over several years Namibia's Rainbow Project poses questions about its effectiveness in the faces of class distinction and growing inequality It also speaks to ongoing problems for Western sexual minority rights programs in Africa in the midst of political violence heated debates over anti discrimination laws and government sanctioned anti homosexual rhetoric

Politicizing Sex in Contemporary Africa Ashley Currier, 2019 This timely account of politicized homophobia contests portrayals of the African continent as hopelessly homophobic highlighting how elites deploy it

Home Is Where Your Politics Are Jessica A. Scott, 2024-06-14 Home Is Where Your Politics Are is a transnational consideration of queer and trans activism in the US South and South Africa Through ethnographic exploration of queer and trans activist work in both places Jessica Scott paints a vibrant picture of what life is like in relation to a narrative that says that queer life is harder if not impossible in rural areas and on the African continent The book asks questions like what do activists in these places care about and how do stories about where they live get in the way of the life they envision for the queer and trans people for whom they advocate Answers to these questions provide insight that only these activists have into the complexity of locally based advocacy strategies in a globalized world

Research Handbook on Gender, Sexuality and the Law Chris Ashford, Alexander Maine, 2020-03-28 This innovative and thought provoking Research Handbook explores not only current debates in the area of gender sexuality and the law but also points the way for future socio legal research and scholarship It presents wide ranging insights and debates from across the globe including Africa Asia Eastern Europe and Australia with contributions from leading scholars and activists alongside exciting emergent voices

Writing Namibia: Literature in Transition Krishnamurthy, Sarala, Vale, Helen, 2018-04-30 Writing Namibia Literature in Transition is a cornucopia of extraordinary and fascinating material which will be a rich resource for students teachers and readers interested in Namibia The text is wide ranging defining literature in its broadest terms In its multifaceted approach the book covers many genres traditionally outside academic literary discourse and debate The 22 chapters cover literature of all categories in Namibia since independence written and performance poetry praise poetry Oshiwambo orature drama novels autobiography women's writing subaltern studies literature in German Juhoansi and Otjiherero children's literature Afrikaans fiction story telling through film publishing and the interface between literature and society The inclusive approach is the book's strength as it allows a wide range of subjects to be addressed including those around gender race and orature which have been conventionally silenced Routledge Handbook of Queer Development Studies Corinne L. Mason, 2018-01-29 Around the world lesbian gay bisexual trans intersex and queer individuals are subjected to violence and intimidation based on their real or perceived sexuality gender identity or expression With those most at risk of human rights violations often living in areas of low economic development questions of sexuality gender identity and expression have become a significant area of research within the field of development studies The Routledge Handbook of Queer Development Studies is the first full length study of queer development studies collecting the very best in research from around the world Topics for discussion include Queering policy and planning in development Queer development critique and queer critiques of development Global LGBTIQ rights Queer social movements and mobilizations At a time when development and human rights organizations such as the World Bank Office of the UN Secretary General and Human Rights Watch are placing increasing importance on global LGBT rights the Routledge Handbook of Queer Development Studies is an essential guide for scholars upper level students practitioners and anyone with an interest in global sexualities gender identities and expressions Political Worlds of Women Mary Hawkesworth, 2018-04-19 Political Worlds of Women provides a comprehensive overview of women's political activism comparing formal and informal channels of power from official institutions of state to grassroots mobilizations and Internet campaigns Illuminating the politics of identity enmeshed in local national and global gender orders this book explores women's creation of new political spaces and innovative political strategies to secure full citizenship and equal access to political power Incorporating case studies from Africa Asia Europe and the Americas Mary Hawkesworth analyzes critical issues such as immigration and citizenship the politics of representation sexual regulation and gender mainstreaming in order to examine how women mobilize in this era of globalization Political Worlds of Women deepens understandings of national and global citizenship and presents the formidable challenges facing racial and gender justice in the contemporary world It is an essential resource for students and scholars of women's studies and gender politics The Dictionary of Homophobia Louis-Georges Tin, 2008 Based on the work of seventy researchers in fifteen countries The Dictionary of Homophobia is a mammoth encyclopedic book that documents the history of homosexuality and various cultural responses to it in all regions of the world a masterful engaged and wholly relevant study that traces the political and social emancipation of a culture The book is the first English translation of Dictionnaire de L Homophobie published in France in 2003 to world wide acclaim The Dictionary includes over 175 essays on various aspects of gay rights and homophobia as experienced in all regions in Africa the Americas Asia Europe and the South Pacific from the earliest epochs to present day Subjects include religious and ideological forces such as the Bible Communism Judaism Hinduism and Islam historical events such as AIDS and Stonewall personalities such as J Edgar Hoover Matthew Shepard Oscar Wilde Pat Buchanan Joseph McCarthy Pope John Paul II and

Anita Bryant and other topics such as coming out adoption deportation ex gays lesbiphobia and bi phobia In a country where gay marriage while legalized remains a hot button political issue and in a world where adults and even teens are still being executed by authorities for the crime of homosexuality The Dictionary of Homophobia is a both a revealing and necessary history lesson for us all Footprint Namibia Lizzie Williams,2006 Namibia is one of the world's true wildernesses a land of symmetrical sand dunes and limitless plains where waterholes support herds of zebra antelope and elephant and where you might glimpse the rare black rhino Here also is the world's oldest desert Africa's second largest canyon and the last refuge of the legendary bushmen Highlights map shows the best sights Includes 32 pages of brilliant colour wildlife photography and helps you stay ahead of the game in Namibia's national parks Adventure tourism for incorrigible adrenaline junkies and relaxed ambler alike

Youth, Education, and Sexualities James Thomas Sears,2005 Featuring more than 200 entries this work is an authoritative source for educators researchers and students seeking an understanding of lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT youth This work examines policy practice and research concerning youth who are often the victims of bullying and harassment The Greenwood Encyclopedia of LGBT Issues Worldwide Chuck Stewart,2010 This set has an ambitious scope with the goal of offering the most up to date international overview of key issues in the lives of lesbian gay bisexual and transgender individuals HIV AIDS has been a major media focus but this set fosters a broader understanding of the status of LGBT individuals in their society More than 70 countries are represented The clear accessible prose is appropriate for high school student research on up The material is especially needed in a cultural climate that increasingly supports and requires information about LGBT populations The content is useful for a paper on a hot topic health classes discussion groups and gay straight alliance groups Google books viewed Oct 15 2020

Namibia, Human Rights Report,2006

Transitions in Namibia Henning Melber,2007 This volume completes the research project on Liberation and Democracy in Southern Africa LiDeSA It mainly addresses socioeconomic and gender related issues in contemporary Namibia Most of the contributors are either Namibian based in Namibia or have undertaken extensive research in the country Their interest as scholars and or civil society activists is guided by a loyalty characterised not by rhetoric but by empathy with the people They advocate notions of human rights social equality and related values and norms instead of being driven by an ideologically determined party political affiliation Their investigative and analytical endeavours depict a society in transition a society that is far from being liberated Not surprisingly this compilation explores the limits to liberation more than its advances      Gender, Citizenship and Governance Minke Valk,2004 In this book four case studies describe civil society initiatives that have intervened in governance and brought about changes in institutional practice aiming to secure strategic gender interests with a global perspective on governance and gender      To Have and to Hold Melanie Judge,Anthony Manion,Shaun De Waal,2008 Written by an impressive selection of academics attorneys researchers and activists these essays explore the national debate in South Africa on the topic and consequences of their Civil Union Act Contributions critically examine the legislative and advocacy process of marriage the institution of marriage itself and the meanings attached to it for lesbian gay bisexual transgender and intersex people The combination of historical documents personal reflections and academic and activist analyses of same sex marriage makes this collection invaluable for understanding this historic journey and its legal social cultural and religious ramifications      Africana Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.),2005 In this newly expanded edition more than 4 000 articles cover prominent African and African American individuals events trends places political movements art forms businesses religions ethnic groups organizations countries and more      New African ,2006
