The World Trade Organization and Trade in Services Kern Alexander, Mads Tønnesson Andenæs, 2008 The World Trade Organisation plays the primary role in regulating international trade in goods services and intellectual property Traditionally international trade law and regulation has been analysed primarily from the trade in goods perspective Services are becoming an important competence for the WTO The institutional legal and regulatory influence of the General Agreement on Trade in Services GATS on domestic economic policymaking is attracting increasing attention in the academic and policymaking literature The growing importance of services trade to the global economy makes the application of the GATS to trade in services an important concern of international economic policy The GATS contains important innovations that build on the former GATT and existing WTO GATT trade regime for goods This book fills a void in the academic and policymaking literature by examining how the GATS governs international trade in services and its growing impact on the regulatory practice of WTO member states It offers a unique discussion of the major issues confronting WTO member states by analysing the GATS and related international trade issues from a variety of perspectives that include law political economy regulation and business Moreover the role of the WTO in promoting liberalised trade and economic development has come under serious strain because of the breakdown of the Doha Development Round negotiations The book analyses the issues in the Doha services debate with some suggested policy approaches that might help build a more durable GATS framework The book is a welcomed addition to the WTO literature and will serve as a point of reference for academics policymakers and practitioners

Manual on Statistics of International Trade in Services 2010 Compiler's Guide United Nations Publications,2017-03-28 The Guide provides practical support on the compilation of service transactions between residents non residents transactions utilizing the EBOPS classification with special emphasis on the partner country break down the foreign affiliates statistics FATS and also on flows by modes of supply The overarching aim is to increase the availability and quality of SITS in order to fulfil the urgent needs and demands for such data by policy makers researchers market analysts and the public in general While the international standards in economic statistics are in the process of being implemented this Guide comes timely providing the statistical community with guidelines best practices case studies and practical advice on the compilation of SITS

International Trade in Services and Intangibles in the Era of Globalization Marshall B. Reinsdorf,Matthew J. Slaughter,2009-08-01 Quantitative measures of international exchange have historically focused on trade in tangible products or capital However services have recently become a larger portion of developed economies and international trade and will only increase in the future In International Trade in Services and Intangibles in the Era of Globalization Marshall Reinsdorf and Matthew J Slaughter examine new and emerging patterns of trade especially the growing importance of transactions involving services or intangible assets such as intellectual property A distinguished team of contributors analyzes the challenges involved in measuring trade in intangibles the comparative advantages enjoyed by United States service industries and the heightened international competition for jobs capital investment economic growth and tax revenue that results from trade in services This comprehensive volume will be necessary reading for scholars seeking to understand the rapidly changing global economy
