endeavours to make it into a home leaves us breathless Yet it shouldn't as we have all been there sometime in our lives We have suffered the disasters disappointments and sheer helplessness but Alan Neale seems to have excelled in his quest to allow us into his own private misery Told with extremely hilarious off side comments he is an obvious master of wit and deep scepticism This brilliant diary allows us into his personal life his love of family life is so simplistic as is his endeavour to provide a dream home but disasters plague him and he shares them with excellent frankness One moment he has us laughing hysterically at some of the almost unbelievable faux pas and then brings tears to our eyes as we witness the deep and obvious love of the family to whom he is trying so desperately to give his all This author obviously doesn't suffer fools gladly anyone
