Brinkerhoff, 2005 A Foreword Magazine Book of the Year Finalist for 2005 Focuses on development management positions in international service employment Devises the concept of the service choice spiral in career evolution Provides information about volunteer and professional opportunities organizations and degree programs In Working for Change Derick and Jennifer Brinkerhoff explore career paths in international public service focusing on development management positions They offer practical and inspiring guidance on finding the right mix of public service objectives degree programs job opportunities and personal lifestyle choices The Brinkerhoffs concept of career evolution is encapsulated in a framework they call the service choice spiral This model rejects standard set the goal plot the steps planning and pulls one s personal values skills professional goals and sense of altruism into a solid career choice Through profiles of six public service professionals the Brinkerhoffs illustrate how real people have faced the choices that confronted them in the course of their careers Working for Change will assuredly become the ideal guide and resource for anyone considering work in public service and mid career professionals looking for a change in direction It will also serve as a powerful resource for university career development officers and faculty advisors View the entire book online at ebrary.com here

International Development from a Kingdom Perspective James Butare-Kiyovu, 2010 The ongoing task of international development has dominated the headlines and the airwaves as of late especially with the establishment of the Millennium Development Goals the growing numbers of celebrities involved in charity work and an expanding global awareness of our humanity s interdependence Nowhere has the challenge of international development been more acutely felt than among Christian congregations and faith based NGOs While followers of Christ certainly face a daunting challenge in the fight against global issues of poverty and oppression there has never before been a time when Christians have been as equipped to help and informed about the situation of our world as they are now With this in mind Christians everywhere can move forward in their task of development with hope in their hearts The articles compiled here by James Butare Kiyovu highlight the promise God holds out for those who would work towards shalom on this earth and offer the same challenge that is quoted from the late Dr Ralph D Winter in the introduction to this anthology No generation has less excuse than ours if we do not do as He asks Sign up for the WCIU Press newsletter to be notified about new books from this author and more <http://eepurl.com/rB15L>
