Hargraves,2020-08-26 This book presents a critical reimagining of education and educational research in addressing practices of representation and their relation to epistemology subjectivity and ontology in the context of early childhood education Drawing on posthumanist perspectives and the immanent materialism of Deleuze Guattari to conceive of early childhood education childhood and indeed adult life in new ways it highlights the powerful role of language in subjectivity and ontology and introduces affectivity as a concept which can be put to work to undo habitual relations and meanings It proposes that ethical becomings require the engagement of an expansion and intensification of a body's affect or capacity and offers readers a provocation for enhancing creative capacity as an ethic This book is an important contribution to the discussions on methods for living and of ways of thinking commensurate with the orientation of a posthuman turn
