Press Freedom and Regulation in a Digital Era Irini Katsirea, 2024-04-22 The processes of convergence and digitalization have altered the technological conditions in which the press operates More than that they have altered the environment in which the press stakes its claim to freedom and strives to protect its turf from other media players The advent of internet based services and applications has blurred the technological boundaries between the press broadcasting and telecommunications challenging their regulatory silos Press Freedom and Regulation in a Digital Era A Comparative Study assesses the extent to which the emergent regulatory model for online news media is shaped by analogies from the past or rather by a newly prevalent culture of control By interweaving two distinct strands of analysis the concepts of press freedom and regulation and the phenomena of convergence and digitalization this book examines the key implications of digitalization and assesses the challenges for press freedom in the nascent digital news ecosystem Drawing upon decisions of the European Court of Human Rights ECtHR the Court of Justice of the European Union CJEU as well as from cases in Germany the United Kingdom and the United States this comparative work comprehensively explores the regulation of the press in the digital era and the impact of the proliferating media laws policies and jurisprudence on press freedom Irini Katsirea identifies the regulatory ruptures that persist and makes concrete and timely recommendations for the evolving online news ecosystem

Women and Children as Victims and Offenders: Background, Prevention, Reintegration Helmut Kury, Sławomir Redo, Evelyn Shea, 2016-06-20 This work compiles experiences and lessons learned in meeting the unique needs of women and children regarding crime prevention and criminal justice in particular the treatment and social reintegration of offenders and serves as a cross disciplinary work for academic and policy making analyses and follow up in developing and developed countries Furthermore it argues for a more humane and effective approach to countering delinquency and crime among future generations In a world where development positively depends on the rule of law and the related investment security two global trends may chart the course of development urbanization and education Urbanization will globalize the concepts of justice and fairness education will be dominated by the urban mindset and digital service economy just as a culture of lawfulness will This work looks at crime prevention education as an investment in the sustainable quality of life of succeeding generations and at those who pursue such crime prevention as the providers of much needed skills in the educational portfolio Adopting a reformist approach this work collects articles with findings and recommendations that may be relevant to domestic and international policymaking including the United Nations Studies and their educational value for the welfare of coming generations The books address the relevant United Nations ideas by combining them with academic approaches Guided by the Editors respective fields of expertise and in full recognition of academic freedom and organized scepticism it includes contributions by lawyers criminologists sociologists and other eminent experts seeking to bridge the gap between academic and policy perspectives as appropriate against the international background including the United Nations developments The second volume opens with Part IV which presents articles on different kinds of crime prevention The effectiveness of punishment and in particular imprisonment is examined by contrasting it with alternative sanctions and the following questions are raised Does harsh punishment have a crime preventive effect What are the side effects of imprisonment on the offenders and their families Are alternatives such as restorative justice or mediation more effective and cheaper Part V outlines proactive strategies of crime prevention e g for potential sex offenders or in the domain of internet crime Part VI envisions a more peaceful and inclusive society which would be realized by improving the protection of women and children in their everyday life and easing the reintegration of those who have become offenders The importance of the role played by the UN in formulating these goals is underlined The volume concludes with an epilogue of the 70th President of the United Nations Economic and Social Council Martin Sajdik and a post scriptum of the editors p
