Commendation the Colvin Prize 2023 Society of Architectural Historians of Great Britain Reconstruction explores the impact of the First World War on the built environment examining the immediate and longer term aftermath of the Great War on the architecture of Britain and the British Empire during the interwar years While much attention has been paid by historians to post war architectural reconstruction after 1945 the earlier developments of the interwar period 1919 1939 have been comparatively overlooked This volume reveals how the architectural developments of this period not only provided important foundations for what happened after 1945 they are also of real significance in their own right Sixteen essays written by leading and emerging scholars bring together new and diverse approaches to the period a period of reconstruction fraught with the challenges of modernity and democratisation The collection considers the complex effects of reconstruction on design discourse practice and professionalism and deals with the full spectrum of architectural styles and approaches privileging neither Modernism nor traditional styles like the neo Georgian It brings to the fore social and political histories of the built environment and makes important postcolonial interventions into the architectural history of British Imperialism at home and in its far reaches in Cairo South Africa Australia and India The Architect ,1871 Journal of the Royal Agricultural Society of England Royal Agricultural Society of England,1851 "The" Athenaeum ,1878 The Journal of the Royal Agricultural Society of England Royal Agricultural Society of England,1851 Old Sands Street Methodist Episcopal Church, of Brooklyn, N.Y. Edwin Warriner,1885 Nature Sir Norman Lockyer,1929 Willing's Press Guide and Advertisers' Directory and Handbook ,1945 Willing's Press Guide ,1952 Coverage of publications outside the UK and in non English languages expands steadily until in 1991 it occupies enough of the Guide to require publication in parts 1995 issued in 2 vols 2003 issued in 3 vols Who's who Henry Robert Addison,Charles Henry Oakes,William John Lawson,Douglas Brooke Wheelton Sladen,1905 An annual biographical dictionary with which is incorporated Men and women of the time The Athenaeum ,1978 The Law Times ,1873 Power in Politics and Academia in Jonathan Coe's Novels Denisa Dumitrascu,2018-04-18 This book explores the intricate manifestations of contemporary power its related ideology and the resistance and reaction to the dominant discourse in Jonathan Coe s political fiction covering the dismantling of the British social democratic consensus Thatcherism and Blairism up to the new ideology of Globalism Beyond the predictable dichotomy of support opposition to power the book argues the modern individual seems to have found another ontological approach for which it coins the concept of intentional unpower Furthermore it demonstrates that there are three possibilities regarding the evolution of this type of social response and invites the readers to discover them while enjoying Coe's subtlety and humour. Given its broad approach, the book will appeal to researchers in a wide range of domains including literary and cultural studies, political theory and sociology, as well as any reader fascinated with the essence of power, intellectual response and discourses containing their own elements of subversion. Mark Lane Express, 1926
