The thorn in the side turned out to be a Congressman whose own aspirations exceeded his standing but who found himself in a position to be able to influence the outcome of events.

Northeast American Sports Car Races 1950-1959 Terry O'Neil, 2010 This book focuses on the different aspects that contributed to the development of Northeast American sports car racing during the 1950s. The transition was neither easy nor uneventful for drivers, clubs or track owners and the tragedy, politics and in Amédée Gordini Roy P. Smith, 2022 This is the story of a man, a team and their life and times as well as a complete record of all their achievements and failures. It logs the financial and personal cost of racing in the prewar and postwar periods. It tells of how the mighty car company Renault became involved with them in the late 1950s and how Amédée Gordini became known throughout the world as one of the greatest engine tuners of his time.

On the road, in club racing, in drag races or competing for land speed records, it dominated the motorcycle world, leading to the famous catchphrase coined by the factory: The World's Fastest Standard Motorcycle. It was a FACT, NOT a slogan. Images such as that of Rollie Free in swimming trunks, laying flat on his works modified Black Shadow and taking the American motorcycle land speed record at Bonneville in 1948 have now passed into posterity. In fact, the big Vincent was so ahead of its time that it continued to compete successfully, almost arrogantly, in racing until the mid 1970s.
