June 2013 As Sociology Question Paper 1:

Diversity in Mathematics Education Alan Bishop, Hazel Tan, Tasos N Barkatsas, 2014-09-20 This book presents a research focus on diversity and inclusivity in mathematics education The challenge of diversity largely in terms of student profiles or contextual features is endemic in mathematics education and is often argued to require differentiation as a response Typically different curricula text materials task structures or pedagogies are favoured responses but huge differences in achievement still result If we in mathematics education seek to challenge that status quo more research must be focussed not just on diversity but also on the inclusivity of practices in mathematics education The book is written by a group of experienced collaborating researchers who share this focus It is written for researchers research students teachers and in service professionals who recognise both the challenges but also the opportunities of creating and evaluating new inclusive approaches to curriculum and pedagogy ones that take for granted the positive values of diversity Several chapters report new research in this direction The authors are part of or have visited with the mathematics education staff of the Faculty of Education at Monash University in Melbourne Australia The chapters all focus on the ideas of development in both research and practice recognising that the current need is for new inclusive approaches The studies presented are set in different contexts including Australia China the United States and Singapore

The War Lawyers Craig Jones, 2020-11-26 Over the last 20 years the world s most advanced militaries have invited a small number of military legal professionals into the heart of their targeting operations spaces which had previously been exclusively for generals and commanders These professionals trained and hired to give legal advice on an array of military operations have become known as war lawyers The War Lawyers examines the laws of war as applied by military lawyers to aerial targeting operations carried out by the US military in Iraq and Afghanistan and the Israel military in Gaza Drawing on interviews with military lawyers and others this book explains why some lawyers became integrated in the chain of command whereby military targets are identified and attacked whether by manned aircraft drones and or ground forces and with what results This book shows just how important law and military lawyers have become in the conduct of contemporary warfare and how it is understood Jones argues that circulations of law and policy between the US and Israel have bolstered targeting practices considered legally questionable contending that the involvement of war lawyers in targeting operations enables legitimises and sometimes even extends military violence

Law, Society and Corruption Rustamjon Urinboyev, Måns Svensson, 2024-07-04 This book presents new socio legal perspectives and insights on the social life of corruption and anticorruption in authoritarian regimes This book takes up the case of Uzbekistan an authoritarian regime in Central Asia and one of the most corrupt countries in the world according to Transparency International s Corruption Perceptions Index and examines the corruption that developed in a tightly closed authoritarian regime permeated by a large scale shadow economy a weak rule of law and a collectivist legal culture Building on socio legal frameworks of legal compliance living law and legal pluralism the central argument of the book is that the roles meanings and logics of corruption are fluid and depend on a myriad of structural variables and contextual and situational factors This book will be of value to researchers academics and students in the fields of sociology of law legal anthropology and Central Asian studies especially those with an interest in the intersection of law society and corruption in authoritarian regime contexts The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 International license
