Telling the Untold Story Steve Weinberg, 1992 Author of his own controversial unauthorized biography of Armand Hammer Steve Weinberg here shows how a new generation of biographers is revealing the lives of powerful individuals in dramatic and important new ways Trained as investigative journalists today s writers have entered a domain once dominated by university scholars Unlike their more academic predecessors who often wrote nonjudgmental books on the public lives of long dead individuals these new biographers are willing to tackle such powerful living subjects as Nancy Reagan Henry Kissinger Hugh Hefner Pete Rose and Fidel Castro Few of these books are adoring Without cooperation from their subjects and sometimes under threat of lawsuit these writers are probing into private lives and enabling readers to make up their own minds about public figures Tracing the evolution of the craft of biography up to the present day Weinberg draws on interviews with some of today s best biographers as well as his own experience with the Hammer biography to highlight the careers of some of the writers whose work exploded the boundaries of traditional biography When Robert Caro became the first journalist to win a Pulitzer Prize for Biography for his book on Robert Moses it marked the dawn of a new approach to the craft Weinberg also explores the techniques of Philadelphia Inquirer journalists Donald Barlett and James Steele whose jointly authored biographies of Howard Hughes and Nelson Rockefeller mark another sign of how far the genre of biography has come The book is enriched by samples of investigative biography at its best including a scathingly honest profile of the reigning queen of unauthorized biography Kitty Kelley and Calvin Trillin's fascinating New Yorker profile of the Miami Herald's inimitable police reporter Edna Buchanan. The living of a life is more difficult than the chronicling of it but the chronicling is certainly no simple task writes Weinberg. Telling somebody else's life fully fairly and compellingly is probably an impossible task. But it is important to keep pushing the limits of the possible. For writers, reviewers, publishers and general readers. Telling the Untold Story is a fascinating look at how a new kind of biographer has forever changed our expectations of the genre and continues to push biography to exciting new limits. The Girl's Own Annual, 1898 Maternal Ambivalence Margo Lowy PhD, 2025-03-25

Picture yourself as a young mother with a three year old daughter and a newborn at the playground. In the moment you've turned to the diaper bag your toddler disappears. At first all you can feel is terror and then instinctively you look up and there she is at the top of the slide looking so proud of herself. At this moment you might find yourself deluged with conflicting feelings including anger and relief and resentment and gratitude and fear and even flashes of hate you told her to wait for you before running off. You're overwhelmed by these colliding feelings including the waves of guilt and self blame you feel for all the fuss when everything has turned out just fine. This is the experience of maternal ambivalence. In Maternal Ambivalence Dr Margo Lowy explores the complex emotional landscape of mothering and the taboo issue of maternal ambivalence arguing that it's actually these darker feelings that most powerfully fuel our love for our children. In fact they are the key to being a mother. Confronting the many moods of motherhood using them to understand ourselves and our children better and learning the language of ambivalence strengthens our love and leads to its own reward: maternal wisdom. Throughout her narrative Dr Lowy offers case studies from her professional practice, cultural examples from classic and contemporary literature and film and anecdotes from her own experience of mothering children born over three separate decades. Maternal Ambivalence both overturns the long held secretive misunderstandings of mothering and reshapes the maternal language of love and self acceptance with a transformative invaluable new point of view. Expectant Prayers for Expectant Mothers Jennifer

Weiss, 2006-08. Day by day guide from planning pregnancy to delivery. Featuring over 260 engaging and interactive prayers formatted with a daily topic verse, devotional and journal tip. A book worth experiencing. Readings for winter gatherings, temperance and mothers' meetings, etc. Ed. by J. Fleming James Fleming, 1870 Mothers Are Made Danielle Sherman-Lazar, 2025-04-08. A deeply personal motherhood memoir about how the challenges moms face daily sharpen them into stronger, braver and better parents for their children. Motherhood is hard. It's full of plenty of moments where a mom might think, "I don't know if I can do this." Danielle Sherman-Lazar has had this thought many times as she's raised her four young daughters under 10 from her struggles with breastfeeding to two of her daughters staying at the NICU. Through personal and honest stories on motherhood and her struggles with eating disorders, Mothers Are Made shows how moms aren't instantly born along with their babies; mothers are made through time and experience. It's when mothers go through the fire Danielle argues that we are forged into resilient brave and courageous parents Danielle s writing is raw and relatable and she shows how overcoming challenges with eating disorders then facing the challenges of perfectionism self doubt anxiety and loneliness has given her tremendous inner strength resilience and confidence Through real stories full of honesty love tenderness and humor she reminds her readers that they too have the knowledge and tenacity to persevere through any obstacle Mothers Are Made will help moms realize that they can handle crises as they arise large or small And they will recognize that they are not alone in their struggles Danielle s vulnerability will help readers find the courage to keep going through the uncomfortable parts of motherhood knowing they ll get to the other side a better happier and stronger mom
