ESA under the coordination of the European Commission will further our scientific and operational observations of the seas. With Sentinel 3A in orbit and its twin Sentinel 3B following in 2017 there is a new category of data available for operational oceanographic applications and climate studies for years to come. These data are free and easy to access by anyone interested. Looking at the role of oceans in our daily lives I am sure that this collection of scientific excellence will be valued by scientists of today and will inspire the next generation to carry these ideas into the future. Business Cycles in BRICS

Sergey Smirnov, Ataman Ozyildirim, Paulo Picchetti, 2018-08-15. This volume focuses on the analysis and measurement of business cycles in Brazil, Russia, India, China, and South Africa (BRICS). Divided into five parts, it begins with an overview of the main concepts and problems involved in monitoring and forecasting business cycles. Then it highlights the role of BRICS in the global economy and explores the interrelatedness of business cycles within BRICS. In turn, part two provides studies on the historical development of business cycles in the individual BRICS countries and describes the driving forces behind those cycles. Parts three and four present national business tendency surveys and composite cyclical indices for real time monitoring and forecasting of various BRICS economies, while the final part discusses how the lessons learned in the BRICS countries can be used for the analysis of business cycles and their socio-political consequences in other emerging countries.

Is Gwyneth Paltrow Wrong About Everything? Timothy Caulfield, 2016-05-10. An exploration of the effect our celebrity-dominated culture has on our ideas of what it means to live the good life. What would happen if an average Joe tried out for American Idol, underwent a professional makeover, endured Gwyneth Paltrow's Clean Cleanse, and followed the outrageous rituals of the rich and famous? Health law policy researcher Timothy Caulfield finds out in this thoroughly unique, engaging, and provocative book about celebrity culture and its iron grip on today's society. Over the past decade, our perceptions of beauty, health, success, and happiness have become increasingly framed by a popular culture steeped in celebrity influence and ever more disconnected from reality. Research tells us that our health decisions and goals are influenced by celebrity culture and endorsements; our children's ambitions are now overwhelmingly governed by the fantasy of fame, and the ideals of beauty and success are mediated through a celebrity-dominated worldview. But while much has been written about the cause of our obsession with the rich and famous, Caulfield argues that not enough has been done to debunk celebrity messages and promises about health, diet, beauty, or happiness. From super-thin models to Gwyneth Paltrow's endorsement of a gluten-free diet for almost anyone, celebrity opinions have the power to dominate our conversations and outlooks. In this book, Caulfield provides an entertaining look into the celebrity world, including vivid accounts of his own experiences trying out for American Idol, having his skin resurfaced, and doing the cleanse, interviews with actual celebrities, thought-provoking facts, and a practical and evidence-based reality check on our own celebrity ambitions. The Digital Double Bind Mohamed Zayani, Joe F. Khalil, 2024. The Middle East's digital turn has renewed hopes of socio-economic development and political change across the region, but it is also marked by stark contradictions and historical tensions. In this book, Mohamed Zayani

and Joe F Khalil contend that the region is caught in a digital double bind in which the same conditions that drive the state market and public immersion in the digital also inhibit change and perpetuate stasis The Digital Double Bind offers a path breaking analysis of how the Middle East negotiates its relation to the digital and provides a roadmap for a critical engagement with technology and change in the Global South Portrayals of Women in Early Twentieth-Century China Sandy Ng,2025-10-01 Portrayals of Women in Early Twentieth Century China explores the role played by woman and their visual representations in introducing modern design and modern ways of living to China It investigates this through an analysis of how women and modern design were represented in the advertisements photographs and films of Republican era China This study explores the intersection of modernity and the Chinese woman as they negotiated their changing identities through and with new designs that proliferated in Chinese households in the first half of the twentieth century The advertisements mass media photographs and films took on the function of social conditioning conveying to the viewers ideas of modern social standards behavior and appearances With women both instrumentalised within these images and addressed through them their visual representations became metaphors that fashioned a new portrait of China while concurrently impacting on the identity agency and subjectivity of women themselves The EU, NATO and the Libya Conflict Stefano Marcuzzi,2021-12-24 This book explores the causes and implications of the Libyan crisis since the anti Gaddafi uprisings of 2011 from the perspective of the EU and NATO It asks the question of why those organizations failed to stabilize the country despite the serious challenges posed by the protracted crisis to European and transatlantic stakes in the region This book argues that such failure originated in a twofold problem common to both organizations their prioritization of legitimacy over strategy and their path dependence the insufficient degree of adaptation to meet the different needs of the crisis Through a critical and integrated analysis of official sources and extensive interviews with EU NATO UN and national government officials and militaries as well as from NGO personnel Libyan institutions and civil society and media the volume brings the perspective of both state and non state actors to the fore It reveals how wrong assumptions and centrifugal forces within the EU and NATO hampered initiatives and how the inability to use hard power judiciously and effectively in an increasingly complex and multifaceted scenario worsened the crisis This allowed for unprecedented influence of regional and global competitors such as Egypt the United Arab Emirates UAE Turkey and Russia in the richest African country This book will be of key interest for scholars and students of Libya and North Africa NATO the European Union security and conflict studies Middle East studies migration terrorism peacebuilding and more broadly international relations MEI Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,1972 Yearbook of International Organizations 2013-2014 (Volume 3) Union Of International Associations,Union of International Associations,2013-08-09 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union
