The Routledge Handbook of English as a Lingua Franca Jennifer Jenkins, Will Baker, Martin Dewey, 2017-08-23 The Routledge Handbook of English as a Lingua Franca ELF provides an accessible authoritative and comprehensive introduction to the main theories concepts contexts and applications of this rapidly developing field of study Including 47 state of the art chapters from leading international scholars the handbook covers key concepts regional spread linguistic features and communication processes domains and functions ELF in academia ELF and pedagogy and future trends This handbook is key reading for all those engaged in the study and research of English as a lingua franca and world global Englishes more broadly within English language applied linguistics and education English-Medium Instruction and Translanguaging BethAnne Paulsrud, Zhongfeng Tian, Jeanette Toth, 2021-01-20 This book offers a critical exploration of definitions methodologies and ideologies of English medium instruction EMI contributing to new understandings of translanguaging as theory and pedagogy across diverse contexts It brings together a number of conceptual and empirical studies on translanguaging in EMI at different educational levels in a variety of countries with different approaches to translanguaging different named languages and different policies These studies include several underrepresented contexts across the globe providing a broad view of how translanguaging in EMI is understood in these educational settings Furthermore this book addresses the complexities of translanguaging through a discussion of the affordances and constraints associated with the use of multiple linguistic resources in the EMI classroom

God's Waiting Room Casey Golomski, 2025 A ghost story rich in mystery and life lessons God's Waiting Room takes readers on a day long tour of a tropical nursing home to hear stories of older white people and the younger Black nurses who care for them showing how people formerly primed to be enemies find grace despite the odds

Militant Migrants Henry Dee, 2025-11-11 Born in colonial Malawi Clements Kadalie dramatically rose to global prominence as general secretary of the Industrial and Commercial Workers Union of Africa ICU during the 1920s A famed orator journalist and trade union organiser Kadalie electrified huge meetings with his call for economic freedom and all in mass organisation eclipsing nationalist contemporaries and unionising anywhere between 100 000 and 250 000 workers throughout South Africa Namibia Lesotho and Zimbabwe A global labour history of Southern Africa from the perspective of the ICU's immigrant leadership Militant Migrants rehabilitates the significance of the early Malawian diaspora the global importance of Kadalie's ideas the rationale behind the ICU's transnational organising and the many awkward difficulties that Kadalie faced in his personal life Although the ICU dramatically collapsed during the early 1930s Kadalie's fall from grace encapsulates a broader turning point in Southern African history offering unique insights into ideas of gender nation and family that he and other immigrants challenged Leaving a complicated legacy of unprecedented successes and inescapable failures Kadalie's life remains a compelling and necessary tale of audacity solidarity and militant mass struggle not least of all because of the profound challenges that he faced

Relanguaging Language from a South

African Township School Lara-Stephanie Krause-Alzaidi, 2021-12-20 Using data from a long term ethnographic study of English language classrooms in a South African township this book highlights linguistic expertise in a setting where it is not usually expected or sought Rather than being peripheral and unskilled South African township teachers and learners emerge as skilled re languagers central to the workings of South African education and to our understanding of how language classrooms work This book foregrounds the heterogeneity flexibility and creativity of day to day language practices that African urban spaces are known for and conceptualises language teaching not as a progression from one fixed language to another but as a circular sorting process between linguistic heterogeneity languaging and homogeneity a standard language
