Sustainability of Higher Education: A Global Perspective (Penerbit USM) Rosni Bakar ,Aziah Ismail, 2019 As the higher education landscape is ever evolving sustainability continues to be an essential concern This publication covers existing sustainability matters ranging from internationalisation and Massive Open Online Courses MOOCs to university social responsibility The main contribution of this book is to reveal the efforts and issues of internationalisation of higher education for sustainable tomorrow from global perspectives Since the institutions educate current and future decision makers they play a key role in building more sustainable entities and creating new paradigms The articles are written by a number of experts with various backgrounds in higher education that give global perspective on the issues of sustainability Specific country studies give a timely review on the substantial growth of higher education institutions in certain parts of the world This publication provides invaluable knowledge and skills to guide the reader in designing appropriate frameworks in critical problem solving of current higher education issues Theme ,2014 Issues of Governance, Security, and Development in Contemporary Africa Mohamed Saliou Camara, Alem Hailu, Sabella O. Abidde, 2023-12-15 Governance security and development are three critical components of a dialectical nexus that is both dominant and determinant for any objective and fruitful quest for the understanding of the trajectory of a country a region or in the case of Africa a continent from a colonial past to a neocolonial and meta colonial present and toward a future of strategic optimal independence and self reliance That colonial past and the ensuing neocolonial and meta colonial present have made these critical components and the dialectical nexus that they form particularly challenging for the African continent For this reason Issues of Governance Security and Development in Contemporary Africa offers an in depth interdisciplinary analysis of the challenges that contemporary Africa faces within these critical areas as well as the resources and prospects that the continent possesses and can leverage to overcome the said challenges Using case studies involving a range of countries across the continent Mohamed Saliou Camara Alem Hailu and Sabella O Abidde argue that Africa needs to decolonize the terms of reference that guide its nation building statecraft and national development agenda in ways that will facilitate the establishment of viable systems of governance and security and the promotion of genuine development

Higher Education - Reflections From the Field - Volume 3 ,2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world s economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Changing Education Education in the Pandemic Sustaining University Education and Embracing the Future in a Global World It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic

Higher Education and Policy for Creative Economies in Africa Roberta Comunian,Brian J. Hracs,Lauren England,2020-11-04 The book reflects on the role of the creative economies in a range of African countries namely Ghana Kenya Nigeria South Africa and Uganda Chapters explore how creative economies emerge and can be supported in African countries The contributors focus on two key dimensions the role of higher education and the role of policy Firstly they consider the role of higher education and alternative forms of specialised education to reflect on how the creative aspirations of students and future creative workers of these countries are met and developed Secondly they explore the role of policy in supporting the agendas of the creative economy taking also into consideration the potential historical dimension of policy interventions and the impact of a lack of policy frameworks The book concludes by reflecting on how these two pillars of creative economy development which are usually taken for granted in studying creative economies in the global north need to be understood with their own specificity in the context of our selected case studies in Africa This book will be of interest to students scholars and professionals researching the creative economies in Africa across the humanities and social sciences All the royalties from the publication
