Martta Heikkilä, 2008 This study explores the significance of art in Jean Luc Nancy's philosophy The main object of the work is to discuss the notion of art and its contribution to some of Nancy's central ontological ideas Art's importance is considered in its own right the main questions being whether art does have ontological significance and if so how one should describe this with respect to the theme of presentation According to the work's central argument with his thinking on art Nancy attempts to give one viewpoint to what is called the metaphysics of presence and to its deconstruction On which grounds may one say that art is not reducible to philosophy These topics are examined by highlighting the differentiation between the notions of presentation and representation with regard to the influence of Martin Heidegger and Jacques Derrida on Nancy's thought
