Mt Kenya 2015 Admissions:

Kenya's 2013 General Election Njogu, Kimani, Wekesa, Peter Wafula, 2017-08-09 When voters enthusiastically turn up to cast their vote during general elections they expect that their action would meaningfully change their lives But in most of Africa even when elections are held on a regular basis voters are quite often disappointed by the performance of their leaders who use the new positions as an opportunity to loot public resources and consolidate power It is almost as if elections are of minimal value to the populace Notwithstanding this trend when they are free and fair general elections can be transformative They can bring into the political arena men and women of integrity committed to service and accountability Inspired by the determination to have inclusive governance and the advancement of democracy Kenya's 2013 General Election Stakes Practices and Outcomes asks important questions related to political participation coalition building politics of identity the international criminal court electoral systems and institutions and the judiciary The papers are written by mainly Kenyan academics and civil society actors who examine the drivers of the 2013 general elections and the sources of the mandate to lead This book is part of publications by Twaweza Communications on democratic practice and accountable governance in Kenya

Institutional Engineering and Hybrid Power-sharing in Divided Societies Krzysztof Trzciński, 2024-08-12 Many societies are strongly divided especially in ethnic religious racial and ideological terms Such divisions are usually related to the existence of divergent interests that may lead to serious conflicts between groups and or between them and state authorities In order to limit them participation in decision making processes by members of different groups is needed However it is extremely difficult to establish and maintain effective power sharing arrangements This book examines the cases of Indonesia Nigeria Kenya and Burundi where hybrid models of power sharing have emerged combining specific elements of consociational and centripetal types It also explains the specificity life cycle and performance of different hybrid systems
