Multiethnic American Literatures Essays For Teaching Context And Culture:

Multiethnic American Literatures Helane Adams Androne,2014-11-19 This book provides original essays that suggest ways to engage students in the classroom with the cultural factors of American literature Some of the essays focus on individual authors works others view American literature more broadly and still others focus on the application of culturally based methods for reading All suggest a closer look at how ethnicity culture and pedagogy interact in the classroom to help students better understand the complexity of works by African Americans Native Americans Asian Americans Latinos and several other sometimes overlooked American cultural groups Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory Mathilde Köstler,2022-12-19 How does Cajun literature emerging in the 1980s represent the dynamic processes of remembering in Cajun culture Known for its hybrid constitution and deeply ingrained oral traditions Cajun culture provides an ideal testing ground for investigating the collective memory of a group In particular francophone and anglophone Cajun texts by such writers as Jean Arceneaux Tim Gautreaux Jeanne Castille Zachary Richard Ron Thibodeaux Darrell Bourque and Kirby Jambon reveal not only a shift from an oral to a written tradition They also show hybrid perspectives on the Cajun collective memory Based on recurring references to place the texts also reflect on the Acadian past and reveal the innate ability of the Cajuns to adapt through repeated intertextual references The Cajun collective memory is thus defined by a transnational outlook a transversality cutting across various ethnic heritages to establish and legitimize a collective identity both amid the linguistic and cultural diversity in Louisiana and in the face of American mainstream culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory represents the first analysis of the mnemonic strategies Cajun writers use to explore and sustain the Cajun identity and collective memory

Toni Morrison's Secret Drive David S. Goldstein,Shawnrece D. Campbell,2022-02-24 The late Toni Morrison was the first African American to win the Nobel Prize for Literature A powerful writer she wove stories depicting the largely overlooked Black experience in America and exploring the intersection of gender and race through the lives of Black women Morrison s writing continues to move people and push readers to reassess their beliefs about what it means to be Black in America Synthesizing some 250 scholarly works about Morrison s writing this book examines eight novels as well as the short story Recitatif They are analyzed for techniques used to deepen meaning and emotional weight and reveal Morrison s mastery over prose Democracy, Social Justice, and the American Community College Patrick Sullivan,2021-07-17 This book provides scholars educators and legislators with a personal classroom level tour of daily life at a community college Readers will accompany the author into the classroom as he goes about his work as an English teacher meeting with classes and corresponding with students on Blackboard and e mail Answering the call for student centered scholarship this book blends traditional academic writing with chapters that feature a rich variety of student work including essays journal entries poems art and responses to creative assignments In this volume Sullivan theorizes the modern community college as a social justice institution By mission and mandate the modern community college has democratized America s system of higher education and distributed hope equity and opportunity more broadly across the nation Misfit Children Markus Bohlmann,2016-12-14 Misfits are often confused with outcasts Yet misfits rather find themselves in between that which fits and that which does not This volume is interested in this slipperiness of misfits and explores the blockages and the promises of such movements as well as the processes and conditions that produce misfits the means that enable them to undo their denomination as misfits and the practices that turn those who fit into misfits and vice versa This collection of essays on misfit children produces transmissible motions across and engages in scholarly conversations that unfold betwixt and between in order to make rigid concepts twist and twirl and ultimately fail to fit Teaching American Ethnic Literatures John Rocco Maitino,David R.
