Do you currently lose too much valuable production time working around your coding equipment? Some ink jet printers can be difficult to work with, requiring special procedures which can hold up production and lead to mistakes.

The Linx 6900 provides a flexible coding solution, which is designed to be easy to use in any environment. It has a simple to use keyboard and screen which allow for easy code creation and editing, a robust design for trouble free operation and a powerful feature set to help you meet current and future traceability requirements.

- Full colour screen with simple menu structure – provide quick and easy code set-up and minimise coding errors
- Flexible code options, offering up to five lines of text, barcodes and graphics, to meet traceability coding requirements
- Compact design with plug-in connectors – for easy set-up and movement between production lines
- Automatic printhead cleaning and printer shutdown – minimise the need for manual printhead maintenance and provide error-free power down

- Versatile connectivity options, including Ethernet and Parallel Input/Output – provide centralised code management and easy integration with production control equipment
- Tough, wash-proof enclosure with dust proof option – designed to minimise dirt traps and give reliable, clean operation in any environment
- Wide range of print speeds, to match production line outputs and maximise productivity
