Space-Age Acronyms Reta C. Moser, 2012-12-06 Acronym agglomeration is an affliction of the age and there are acronym addicts who in their weakness find it impossible to resist them More than once in recent months my peers have cautioned me about my apparent readiness to use not only acronyms but abbreviations foreignisms codes and other cryptic symbols rather than common ordinary American words Many among us though either have not received or have chosen to ignore such advice As a consequence what we write and speak is full of mystery and confusion It is then for the reader and listener and for the writer and speaker that Reta C Moser has compiled this guide Its effective application to the art of communication is urged Such use should help avoid many of the misunderstandings involving terminology which occur daily Although such misunderstandings are certainly crucial in humanistic and social situations they are often of immediate import and the trigger to disaster in scientific technical and political situations Some 15 000 acronyms and 25 000 definitions are provided a 50 and 47 percent increase over the 1964 edition with due credit to Miss Moser's diligence in making the compilation and with the acknowledgment that the acronymical phenomenon is very much with us This edition like the first is certain to be of value to writers librarians editors and others who must identify and deal with acronyms

Dictionary of Acronyms and Technical Abbreviations Jakob Vlietstra, 2012-12-06 My first encounter with acronyms took place when I was ten years old and growing up in an occupied COWltry during the Second World War My father proudly announced one day that despite the ban imposed by the occupying administration he had managed to get a radio installed and could receive the BBC All acronyms used in this introduction are listed in this dictionary To me the meaning of BBC was that we would receive different information about the war than we got from the usual censored broadcasts There was of course the well known acronym associated with the NT but at that time I did not realize that it meant more than the postal service in those years a deteriorated service Gradually the daily use of acronyms grew Most of the newly acquired three and four letter abbreviations referred to organizations such as the broadcasting corporations in The Netherlands and Belgium and references to countries such as the USA USSR and UK When attending high school the HBS after the war my knowledge of acronyms grew slowly Even during the ten years I spent in the Dutch Merchant Marine the GHV the number of acronyms was limited to advanced equipment that eventually became known as RADAR LORAN and DECCA
