7 pages | 1683 words

Martin Luther King Jr., once said, "We are not the makers of history. We are made by history." Many authors during every century have used this historical lense in some way. The historical lens is analyzing literature in the ways it was influenced by history. One of many, Harper Lee, author of To Kill A Mockingbird, was extremely influenced by many historical events that she connects to her novel. Harper Lee explains the history of racism and segregation in Alabama through the Scottsboro trials, Atticus Finch, Scout Finch, and Tom Robinson. In the United States alone, the great stock market crash otherwise known as The Great Depression was so severe on the economy, that millions died of starvation and disease. In Alabama during the 1930's, segregation and racism was as bad or worse as segregation and racism in other states. In Scottsboro, Alabama in 1931, nine young men were accused of raping two white women as they were getting on a train. Harper Lee made many connections with the Scottsboro trials and the trials that take place in the novel. For example, Tom Robinson and the Scottsboro boys both deal with white women accusing black men of sexual assault. (Entre quote here). Similarly, both trials take place in Alabama. The Scottsboro trials take place in Scottsboro, AL as well as To Kill A Mockingbird... although the sleepy town of Maycomb is fictional. Scout Finch described Maycomb through her eyes and she says, "Maycomb was an old town, but it was an old town when I first knew it. (Lee 3)." Likewise, The defendants in both cases had a disability. In the novel, Tom Robinson's left arm was extremely shorter than his right making it extremely hard to bring force over someone. One of the boys involved in the Scottsboro trials, Willie Robinson, had a bad limp in his right leg which made it hard to run after someone. When Tom was young, he caught his left arm in Dolphus Raymond's cotton gin, so his left arm is much shorter than his right arm. While analyzing the courtroom Scout notices, "He looked oddly off balance, but it was not from the way he was standing. His left arm was fully twelve inches shorter than his right, and hung dead at his side (Lee 248)." Racism in Alabama in the 1900's was extremely common. In To Kill A Mockingbird, there are many extreme examples of racism sprinkled throughout the novel. One instance of racism in the novel is how the town responds to Atticus and his defense of Tom. Atticus decides to defend Tom Robinson because he believes that Robinson is innocent. While having a discussion with one of the men that came to his house, Atticus says, "...And you know what the truth is (Lee 195)." This decision invites the opinions of the whole county of Maycomb. For example, in chapter nine, Scout's classmate, Cecil Jacob, announces that Scout's father is defending a 'Negro'. Scout says, "Then why did Cecil say you were defending niggers? He made it sound like you were runnin' a still (Lee chapter 9)." As well as that,...
